Artist Statement

My goal through photography and journalism is to express my interpretation of the world around me. I want to explore the world and interact with the people I meet. I intend to photograph and tell stories that evoke a sense of wonder and mystery. As a journalist, it's my goal to uncover the mysteries of life and transmit what I find to my readers. The world we live in is a great mystery in itself and it's my job to capture and convey that in my work. I want to find a world of new relationships, new beginnings, and new stories. I want to make a difference, not only in how people see the world through my photography, but how they interact with it. With photography and journalism, I find a source of happiness, sadness and inspiration.
