Narrative

On October 21, 2024, at approximately 1:00 PM, I, Officer Laura Davis, was dispatched to 456 Willow Lane in response to a domestic disturbance call. Upon arrival, I spoke with the victim, Maria Thompson, who reported that her husband, John Thompson, had been verbally abusive and made threatening gestures toward her and their two children during an argument.

Maria stated that while no physical violence occurred, she and the children felt unsafe due to John's aggressive behavior. She reported that John has a history of similar outbursts, which have been escalating in frequency over the past month. During today's incident, Maria locked herself and the children in a bedroom until John left the house. She expressed fear that the situation could worsen and lead to physical harm.

I observed that both children were present at the scene and appeared visibly upset. Maria requested assistance in securing a safe place for her and the children. I provided her with information about local shelters and advised her on the steps to obtain a restraining order.

Given the presence of children and the ongoing nature of the disturbances, I am making a referral to social services for follow-up. The children's welfare is a concern, and further assessment of the home environment may be necessary.

Evidence and Property

- Statements: Verbal account provided by Maria Thompson
- Observations: No physical injuries, but emotional distress observed in both the victim and the children.

Conclusion/Disposition

This case is referred to Social Services for further investigation and support for the family, including an assessment of the children's safety and the overall home environment. Maria Thompson was advised to follow up with social services for additional assistance, and a detective will be assigned for continued monitoring of the situation. The report has been forwarded to the social services department, and Maria was given a case number for reference.
