

Death & Funeral Notices

DEATH NOTICE

The purpose of the main death notice is to advise family and friends of the death. There are no set rules or guidelines for the wording of this notice, however most are structured in the traditional format of the full name of the deceased person, the date of death and date of birth or age, and family names and relationships. Some suggested verses for the death notice have been listed for you to assist in the wording to close the notice.

FUNERAL NOTICE

The funeral notice informs friends and family of the day, time and place of the funeral as well as instructions regarding the committal and floral tributes or charity donations. The notice follows a standard format, includes the funeral directors contact details and is submitted by the funeral director, not the family.

BEREAVEMENT NOTICE

A bereavement notice is often submitted after the funeral or memorial has taken place to thank friends and family for their sympathies and condolences, this is done directly to the newspaper by the family.

MEMORIAL NOTICE

A memorial notice is placed by the family in remembrance at the one year anniversary.

DEATH NOTICE VERSES Continued

God has you in his keeping, we have you in our hearts.

Our days are poorer for his/her passing, but our lives are richer for having known and loved him/her.

We were not there to say goodbye, but our memories will never die.

Departing came so suddenly, we can but wonder why, the hardest part of all was, we never said goodbye.

So dearly loved, so sadly missed.

Weep not that she has gone, but smile that she has lived.

MEMORIAL NOTICE SUGGESTED VERSES (one year)

A year has passed and not a day goes by that we don't miss and remember you, (name).

When days are dark and friends are few, dear (name) we still think of you, friends are friends if they are true, we lost our best friend when we lost you.

You never failed to do your best, your heart was true and tender, you simply lived for those you loved, and those you loved remember.

Beautiful memories are all we have left, of one we loved and will never forget.

Your presence we miss, your memory we treasure, loving you always, forgetting you never.

A little corner of our hearts is set aside for you always, as long as life and memory live we will remember you.
