Dear Terri Rodgers,

I hope this letter finds you well. I want to express my sincere gratitude to you and the team at XYZ Corporation for offering me the position of [Job Title]. I am very excited about the opportunity to work with XYZ Corporation and contribute to the [specific project, department, team goal] with my skills and experience.

After careful consideration, I would like to discuss the initial salary offer. While I am keen on joining your team and contributing to the company's success, I believe that a discussion about the salary would be beneficial. Based on my [specific number of years] years of experience in the industry and my expertise in [specific skill, project, or area], as well as the average market salary for similar positions in our region, I was anticipating a slightly higher starting salary.

I understand the budget constraints and the company's salary structures, but I would respectfully request if we could consider a starting salary of [requested salary amount], which I believe reflects the value I bring to the team and XYZ Corporation. I am confident that my background in [mention any relevant experience, achievements, or projects] can significantly contribute to the company's objectives and future projects.

I am very enthusiastic about the possibility of joining XYZ Corporation and I am confident that I can make a meaningful contribution to the team. I am open to discussing this further and finding a mutually agreeable solution that aligns with the company's compensation framework and my expectations.

Thank you very much for considering my request. I look forward to your response and am available at your earliest convenience for a discussion. I am eager to contribute to XYZ Corporation and am hopeful that we can come to an agreement that is beneficial for both parties.

Thank you once again for this incredible opportunity. I am looking forward to the possibility of working together.

Sincerely,

Frank Hickman
