To Our Guest

Thank you for sharing with us the most important day of our lives—the day that we pledge ourselves to one another for the rest of our lives.

Our happiest day, we would like to remember those of our friends and family who could not be with us today.

Primo Villanueva (Tony) & Floyd Goss (Bud) who have returned to god. We know that they are watching over us today.

Reading

The Little things are big things.

It is never being too old to hold hands. It's remembering to say "I love you" at least once a day. It is never going to sleep angry. It is at no taking the other for granted; the courtship should not end with the honeymoon, it should continue through all the years. It is having a mutual sense of values and common objectives; it is facing the world together. It is forming a circle of love that gathers in the whole family. It is doing things for each other, not in attitude of duty or sacrifice, but in the spirit of joy. It is speaking words of appreciation and demonstrating gratitude in thoughtful ways. It is not expecting the husband to wear a halo or the wife to have the wings of an angel. It is not looking for perfection in each other. It is cultivating flexibility, patience, understanding, and a sense of humor. It is having the capacity to forgive and forget.

It is giving each other an atmosphere in which each other can grow. It is finding room for the things of spirit. It is common search for the good and the beautiful. It is the establishing of a relationship in which the independence is equal, the dependence is mutual, and the obligation is reciprocal.

Betty Pingel

Prayer

Our Father who art in heaven, hallow be Thy name, Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever and ever. Amen.

Dear Friends and Family,

We want to thank you for being a part of our special day and our lives. Each one of you has enriched our lives with your love and friendship. We are truly blessed to be able to share our future with such supportive and caring loved ones. We especially want to thank our parents and families for their unconditional love and encouragement and for showing us what love truly means.

All our love,

Chasidy and Jay

Many Thanks To Our Wonderful Family and Friends

To our parents: We would like to thank you for all you have done to help us celebrate our very special day. Your support, love, patience and time are so deeply appreciated. You have given us such a wonderful picture of what true love is and we are blessed to have grown up in homes so full of love. You are a sign of all good things to come in our lives and we cannot wait to share this newest journey with you. Thank you for all you have provided and done to help us become who we are. Thank you for the love you give that continues to make us so strong and blessed.

To our family: We would like to thank you for always being there, for listening and giving us advise when we needed it and when we thought we didn't. We are both the "babies" in our families and would like to thank our siblings for not only being our friends, but being a source of support and guidance. Thank you for all the laughs we have had as we grew up, for all the memories and good times. We are blessed to share this day with you.

I, Amy, would also like to send a special thank you to my nieces and nephews whom I just love so much. Thank you girls for coming all this way to be a part of my day, you have made it beautiful and so very precious.

To our wedding party: Where would we be without you? Thank you for supporting us and sharing in our day, we are so blessed to have such amazing people stand up with us. We have known you since we were just little, and look at us now, all grown up(okay..kind of grown up). We have so many good memories of so many great times! We look forward to the years to come and thank you for all the laughter and love you have filled our lives with.

To our friends and extended family: Thank you for being here with us today. Your friendship and love are so greatly appreciated. We thank you for traveling to be here and are blessed to have you share in all the special moments of our lives. Your love and friendship are a true gift.

A special thank you to Bryan: Thank you for blessing our day with your beautiful voice. I cherish our friendship and thank you for being there for me always, no matter what. I am blessed to have such a giving and thoughtful person in my life and am honored that you are here today to share in our wedding.

A special thank you to Charlie: I met Charlie through my sister in high school choir. Charlie has become "another member" of the family and I am thrilled that he came to share his talented voice with us today. Thank you for making the high school years not only tolerable, but tons of fun. Thank you also for sharing the many gifts your musical talents and friendship have to offer.

We share this day in the memories of our loved ones who have passed and smile in the warmth of their memories. We also send our blessings to those who were unable to be here with us today and extend our prayers to Brad's cousin in Iraq.
