

Telephone Meetings

CURRENT MEETING SCHEDULE

“Peers Helping Peers Achieve Mental Health”

Recovery International (RI) telephone meetings are designed to introduce individuals to the Recovery Method and/or for those who are unable to attend RI community-based meetings in person due to distance, illness or other challenges. Phone meetings are accessed at participant's own expense. Phone meetings last from 60 to 90 minutes. Participants are asked to attend on time and to remain on the call for the duration of the meeting if possible. Line opens 5 minutes prior to scheduled time shown.

NEWCOMERS: INTRODUCTION TO THE RI METHOD

(Membership is not required to attend the Introduction to RI Meetings.)

Intro meetings are an opportunity for newcomers to learn the RI Method through explanation, demonstration and practice. To receive the Intro phone number and access code please call Gilda at 352-464-7232. Phone number and access code will not be shared via email. When leaving a message please provide your full name, state or country and phone number.
