

Wedding Speech Format

Introduction

a. Greeting and Welcome:

- Start by greeting the audience and introducing yourself.
- Example: "Good evening, everyone. For those who don't know me, I'm [Your Name], [Bride's Name]'s [relation] / [Groom's Name]'s [relation]."

b. Relationship to the Couple:

- Briefly explain your relationship to the bride and groom.
- Example: "I've had the pleasure of knowing [Bride's Name] since we were kids, and it's an honor to stand here today."

c. Expressing Gratitude:

- Thank the hosts, guests, and anyone who contributed to the wedding.
- Example: "Thank you to everyone who helped make this day so special, and to all of you for being here to celebrate this joyous occasion."

2. Body

a. Sharing Memories:

- Include personal anecdotes or stories that highlight the character and journey of the bride and groom.

- Example: "I remember the time when [Bride's Name] and I... [insert a funny or heartwarming anecdote]."

b. Highlighting Qualities:

- Talk about the qualities that make the bride and groom special individually and as a couple.
- Example: "What I admire most about [Groom's Name] is his unwavering loyalty and kind heart. Together, [Bride's Name] and [Groom's Name] are an incredible team."

c. Mutual Love and Respect:

- Emphasize their love story, how they met, and their journey to this day.
- Example: "From the moment they met, it was clear that [Bride's Name] and [Groom's Name] were meant to be. Their journey has been filled with love, laughter, and shared dreams."

d. Offering Advice or Wishes:

- Share some wisdom or advice for a happy marriage, if appropriate.
- Example: "Remember to always communicate openly, support each other through life's challenges, and keep laughter at the heart of your relationship."

3. Conclusion

a. Summarizing Key Points:

- Recap the main sentiments and highlights of your speech.

- Example: “To sum up, [Bride’s Name] and [Groom’s Name], your love and commitment to each other are truly inspiring.”

b. Raising a Toast:

- Invite everyone to join you in raising a glass to the couple.
- Example: “Now, if everyone could please raise their glasses... Here’s to a lifetime of love, happiness, and endless adventures together. To [Bride’s Name] and [Groom’s Name]!”