The Raindrop

Author - Olivia W 5BW

The raindrop is a calm angel.

She sways peacefully and shimmers brightly in the sun.

The raindrop grins cheerfully.

On cold wintry days,
she slides excitedly down cold, soaked
and clear window panes,
and into her mother's arms...
(a puddle.)

She whispers to her brother,
"The sun is gone and our time to shine has come too."

They wait for their little friend snowflake to come.
When he arrives he slowly melts
into water too.
