Depending on the type of license purchased, section 3.1, 3.2 or 3.3 below shall apply. Section 3.4 is applicable for all license models and shall hence apply regardless of the chosen license type.

3.1 Single Website License

- i. Subject to the terms and conditions specified in this Agreement, a Website License grants Licensee a non-exclusive and non-transferable right to install and utilize the Software on Licensee's own website. The Single Website License does not grant Licensee any right to carry out a Customer Installation, or to use the Software in web applications, intranets, or SaaS applications.

- ii. Licensee and its Affiliates are under no circumstances allowed to transfer, rent, lease, lend, sell, copy, redistribute, sublicense the Software by itself, or with other software, or in any other way make the Software available, to any Third Party. Any attempt to do so is considered a breach of this Agreement.

Subject to the terms and conditions specified in this Agreement, a Developer License grants Licensee a non-exclusive and non-transferable right to install and utilize the Software on Licensee's websites, web applications, intranets and in SaaS applications, and to use it for permitted internal purposes (for example testing, development and demonstrations). - iv. Licensee and its Affiliates are under no circumstances allowed to transfer, rent, lease, lend, sell, copy, redistribute, or sublicense the Software, by itself or with other software, or in any other way make the Software available to any Third Party. Any attempt to do so is considered a breach of this Agreement.

3.3 OEM License

- i. Subject to the terms and conditions specified in this Agreement, an OEM License grants Licensee a non-exclusive and non-transferable right to sublicense the Software as an integral part of the Licensee Product, carried out as a Customer Installation. Licensee has the right to install and utilize the Software for internal purposes (for example testing, development and demonstrations).
- ii. The right to sublicense the Software as an integral part of a Licensee Product, granted through an OEM License, is limited to specific Licensee Product(s) and to a certain number of Customer Installations, both to be specified in the License Statement.
- iii. Licensee undertakes not to resell any Licensee Product(s) in any way that will infringe this License Agreement.
- iv. 3.4 General Grants and Limitations

- i. Licensee may obtain the Software source code by downloading the source code from GitHub, and to make own edits, and keep its own repositories with the modified source code.

- ii. Licensee undertakes not to use the Software as part of any offerings comprising functionality that is substantially similar to that of the Software during the term of this Agreement, and for a period of three (3) years after termination. Nothing in this Agreement shall, however, be construed to preclude either Party from developing, using, marketing, licensing and/or selling independently software which has the same or similar functionality as the Software or any other products, as long as such activities do not infringe the intellectual property rights of the other party.
- iii. Highsoft reserves all rights not expressly granted to Licensee in this Agreement. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Licensee acknowledges and agrees that: (i) except as specifically set forth in this Agreement, Highsoft retains all right, title, interest in and to the Software, and Licensee does not acquire any right, title or interest to the Software except as set forth herein; (ii) any configuration or deployment of the Software shall not affect or diminish Highsoft's rights, title and interest in and to the Software. Except as stated in the foregoing subsection, nothing in this Agreement shall limit in any way Highsoft's right to develop, use, license, create derivative works of, or otherwise exploit the Software, or to permit Third Parties to do so.
- iv. Licensee shall not modify, delete or obscure any notices of proprietary rights or any Software identification or restrictions on or in the Software found in the license-header of the code files.
- v. The export server running at Highsoft Website is based on a fair usage policy. Highsoft does not gather, or use for commercial purposes, any information sent to the export server. The software available for on-premise installation of the export-server is available under the MIT license.

4 Marketing

Licensee may use Licensee's own descriptions of the functionality provided by the Software for the purposes of marketing Licensee Product(s) insofar as the descriptions are not misleading.

Licensee shall not do anything that might misrepresent the ownership of the Software.

5 License Fee

In consideration of the License(s) granted to Licensee under this Agreement, the Licensee shall pay a License Fee.

Highsoft shall invoice Licensee for all payments due, and Licensee shall pay all invoices by the agreed payment method. Each Party is responsible to pay any local taxes imposed by law of the Party's home country related to the purchase of ordered Items. Invoices from Highsoft do not include taxes, except VAT in the case of Norwegian customers, and Licensee cannot withhold any part of the invoiced amount as payment of taxes.

6 Term and Termination

The License granted under this Agreement gives Licensee a right to use the particular version of the Software that was acquired for as long as the Licensee may choose. However, Licensee may only receive and utilize updates and new versions of the Software for as long as Licensee keeps a running Maintenance and Support agreement in accordance with sections 8.2 and 8.3 below. Upon expiration or termination of such Maintenance and Support period, Licensee will keep the usage rights set forth in this Agreement but limited to the version of the Software current at the time of such expiration or termination.

Either Party may terminate this Agreement in the event of a material breach of this Agreement by the other Party.

On termination of this agreement section 2, 10, 12, and 17 shall survive.

The termination or expiration of this agreement shall not impair any license, sublicense or maintenance obligations already granted or undertaken by Licensee towards Third Party regarding the Software as incorporated into a Licensee Product pursuant to an OEM-License. In such case, upon termination, or expiration of this Agreement, Licensee may continue to exercise the rights granted hereunder to the extent necessary to fulfill Licensee's existing contractual obligations towards such Third Party.

On termination of this Agreement each Party must remove, delete or otherwise destroy any of other Party's material that it has received, copied or otherwise obtained, including but not limited to Confidential Information cf. section 12.
