

School graduation speech

Let me begin by welcoming all of you to today's event and thanking (NAME OF PERSON WHO INTRODUCED YOU) for that kind introduction.

I'm very pleased to have been invited to speak here today on what I know is a very special day. It's special for the graduates, for their proud parents and grandparents, and for their very relieved teachers. Just wait until these students are graduating college. Then their parents will be the Relieved ones.

As I begin, I have to say, I think the best speeches are those that have a great beginning, a memorable end, and not much in between. I will try then to make a great speech. Today is one of those great occasions when we get to celebrate our young people - their
