

Policies:

Name	Content
Search Campaigns - Direct Linking Are publishers allowed to link directly to my Web site from search marketing campaigns	No
Search Campaigns - Special Instructions for Search Marketing Publishers These are any additional usage instructions or limitations for search marketing including rules for broad, exact, phrase or negative matching. Advertiser may also specify any relevant sections of Special Terms and Conditions	Affiliate shall not promote or market PrintPlace.com offers via paid search without prior written approval of PrintPlace.com.
Web Site - Prohibited Web Site Domain Keywords Keywords that publishers are prohibited from using in the top-level domain of their Web site	Publishers may not register or purchase domain names including PrintPlace, Print Place, or PrintPlace.com or any misspellings or variations. Publishers promoting PrintPlace in this manner will immediately be removed from the PrintPlace.com Affiliate Program and all associated transactions will be reversed.
Web Site - Prohibited Web Site Content Keywords or types of content that publishers are prohibited from using in Web site content or meta data	Publishers may not promote PrintPlace.com on website that contains any form of misleading, defamatory, obscene, adult, bigoted, illegal, software, spiderweb marketing or any other content deemed offensive by PrintPlace.com. PrintPlace.com will not accept applications that include non-working website, blogs without content, or parked domains.
Non-Commissionable Items Products or services that will not qualify for publisher commissions (gift cards, gift wrapping)	Orders placed via the PrintPlace.com Gives Back NonProfit program are ineligible for commission and will be reversed. Self-placed orders are not eligible for commission. Placing orders through your own affiliate link will result in commission reversal and/or removal from the program.
Coupons and Promotional Codes Can publishers use coupons and promotional codes?	Publishers may only use coupons and promotional codes that are provided exclusively through the affiliate program
Sub-Affiliates Are publishers allowed to distribute their links to other affiliates in their own network?	No