

ESSAY WRITING WORKSHOP FOR COLLEGE/SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATIONS

- WHO: CENTRAL HIGH SCHOOL CLASS OF 2017 SENIORS
- WHAT: A Writing Workshop for college or scholarship application essays. Former college admissions officer and current English teacher Ken George will provide an extensive packet of information to help you with even the most unique essay questions.
- WHEN: Session One: Monday, August 29, 7-8 pm
Review typical college essay questions and sample responses. Mr. George will speak from his experience in admissions at Albion College about how to write an essay to help you attain admission to the college of your choice.
Homework: Write your essay for Wednesday's session.
- Session Two: Wednesday, August 31, 7-8 pm
Students will bring three copies of their essays: two for peer review, one for Mr. George to review. Students will sign up for a 5-minute appointment on Thursday to discuss their essays with Mr. George.
- Session Three: Thursday, September 1 3 - 8 p.m. (by appt.)
Mr. George will sit with each student personally and discuss his or her Essay – this may also be done via email.
- WHERE: Lecture Hall at FHC High School
