

2014 J.P. MORGAN HOLIDAY READING LIST

---

The Promise of a Pencil

ADAM BRAUN

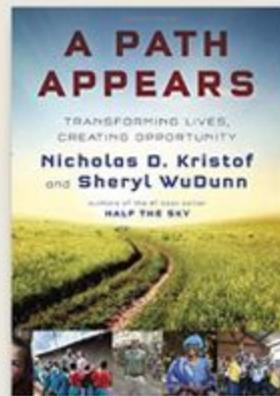

Adam Braun's chronicle of lessons learned while developing his nonprofit, Pencils of Promise, is both an inspirational tale and a model for like-minded humanitarians.

A Scent of Champagne

RICHARD JUHLIN

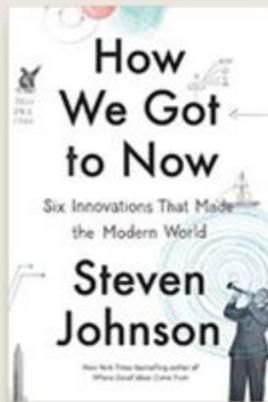

Add sparkle to any celebration with this beautifully designed book written by the world's #1 champagne expert.

A Path Appears

NICHOLAS D. KRISTOF
AND SHERYL WUDUNN

Budding philanthropists will relish this practical and experience-tested advice, made real through stories of success, by the authors of Half the Sky.

How We Got to Now

STEVEN JOHNSON

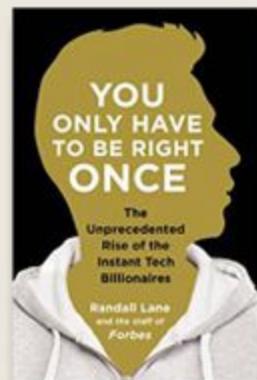

How innovation is a mixture of luck and genius is Steven Johnson's theme in these stories of great ideas and the inventions they made possible.

Hollywood Costume

DEBORAH NADOOLMAN
LANDIS

Film and fashion buffs across the globe will cherish this comprehensive look at iconic films and the costumes that made them memorable.

You Only Have to Be Right Once

RANDALL LANE

Randall Lane's profiles of self-made billionaires, united by the qualities of youth, brains and courage, offer an inside look at today's game-changing entrepreneurs.