

A realistic article should consist of...

- 1. an eye-catching title which attracts the readers' attention and suggests the theme of the article. (Think about why you read a magazine or newspaper article recently - what made you read it?) Articles can also have subheadings before each paragraph.
- 2. an introduction which clearly defines the topic to be covered and keeps the reader's attention.
- 3. the main body of two to five paragraphs in which the topic is further developed in detail.
- 4. the conclusion - summarising the topic or a final opinion, recommendation or comment.
