

BEST MAN SPEECH SAMPLE

A very good Evening to all the guests present to attend my friend John's wedding with Caroline who is looking gorgeous. I am George, John's best friend and I have known him since fourth grade. I hope you all have had a superb evening so far.

First and foremost, on behalf of the lovely Bridesmaids, I would like to thank John for his kind words. I felt hugely honored when John asked me to be his best man. But, after a while, I felt quite blank as to what should I say about a guy whom I have known all my years and shared so many memories together.

This is my first time at being a best man, so I listed down a few duties and till now I double checked the following- John reached church before time, he is looking well-dressed, sleek and quite calm. The entire day he has been chanting: "I am fine, honestly". So, I guess he is handling the pre-wedding jitters better than I had expected.

Born on 15 May, 1985, John was so good with his football skills that I never knew he would turn out to be a banker. He had a cocky Northern hair style and would always sneak out for a match on the football grounds. The first time we went to the pub was together, and I brought him home, actually carried him back, as he was a slightly emotional!

John has always been a great friend, more like a brother to me. So, when he met Caroline and spoke to me about her, I knew it was something special. It was 5 years back on a valentine's day that John asked Caroline out on a very special date and expressed his feelings for her. Caroline always brings the best out of John. I would like to thank her for always being by his side. I truly believe that they are made for each other.
