

"Make books your companions; let your bookshelves be your gardens; bask in their beauty, gather their fruit, pluck their roses, take their spices and myrrh. And when your soul be weary, charge from garden to garden, and from prospect to prospect."

- Ibn Tibbon

"I like to go out dancing, my books love a bunch of authors, we've been living in boxes, spending all our money on brand new novels."

- Moby Furbus

"You cannot tell a man by the lobster he eats, but you can tell something about him by the literature he reads."

- A. A. Milne

"The possession of a book becomes a substitution for reading it."

- Anthony Burgess

"If you cannot read all your books, at any rate handle, or as it were, fondle them, peer into them, let them fall open where they will, read from the first sentence that arrests the eye, set them back on the shelves with your own hands, arrange them on your own plan so that you at least know where they are. Let them be your friends; let them at any rate be your acquaintances."

- Winston Churchill

Just for today,
share a book

"The oldest books are still just out to those who haven't read them."

- Samuel Butler

Books are not made for furniture, but there is nothing else that so beautifully furnishes a house.

- Henry Ward Beecher

"A book is a present you can open again and again"
