

Bullet Journal

Mission

Serving Professionals with advice and knowledge on adapting and enhancing a bullet journal to be more organized and productive on the job.

1. Connect and unite a community of like-minded professionals who use a bullet journal on the job.
2. Provide useful, relevant information and networking opportunities.
3. Expand the usefulness of the bullet journal by introducing new applications, designs and collections to the community.
4. Become a voice for business management through journaling.
