

DAD LIBS: A Fill-in-the-Blank Father's Toast

Hello everyone. My name is (dad's name), (bride's name)'s dad. And I'm thrilled you're all here to celebrate the marriage of (bride's name) and (groom's name).

I'd like to start out by welcoming (groom's name) to our family, along with his parents, (groom's parents' names).

① After (bride's name) met (groom's name) she (story about the bride and groom's relationship thus far).

② This has been an incredible day for us. Seeing (poignant moment from the ceremony, or poetic note about the bride's beauty) has reminded us once again how special (bride's name) is to us.

Back when (bride's name) was a little girl, (humorous or sweet story about the bride at a young age—the goal here: “Awwws” from the crowd). ③

I know from experience (a brief tidbit of sound marital
