Writing Sentences with Subordinate Clauses Worksheet

A clause is a group of words that contains a verb and its subject.

There are two kinds of clauses, independent and dependent.

An independent clause expresses a complete thought and can stand by itself as a sentence.

A dependent clause does not express a complete thought and cannot stand alone as a sentence.

Directions: On the lines provided, write a complete sentence by adding an independent clause to each dependent clause below.

Example A: Before the food gets cold,

Answer: Before the food gets cold, make sure to wash your hands.

1. Since I don't have money,

2. While the flowers bloom,

3. If you work on Mondays,

4. Until my mother comes home,

5. Whenever you come to visit,

6. Until the sun sets,

7. When my father arrives,
