

RELATIVE CLAUSES

A. Fill in the blanks by using the suitable 'RELATIVE PRONOUNS, WHO, WHICH, WHOSE, WHERE'.

1. I saw a man has a red hat on his head.
2. This is the window I repaired last week.
3. He is the man interviewed me for the job.
4. The fish I'm cooking smells delicious.
5. She is the woman I'm going on holiday with.
6. The doctor examined me was well-qualified.
7. This is the shop sells the best fruit.
8. The house I was born is that one.
9. He is married to a woman is much better looking than he is.
10. That's the beach I used to go swimming.
11. This is the factory my father used to work.
12. The director spoke to the students reports were not good.
13. The fire started on the first floor of the hospital patients are old.
14. His wife I met in Istanbul is very young.
15. The man you saw in the bank is very rich.
16. The burglar the police are looking for broke into several houses.
17. The bus the student missed was going to Goztepe Campus.
18. The house Mr. Smith wants to buy is very expensive.