Writing Sentences with Clauses Worksheet

A clause is a group of words that contains a verb and its subject.

There are two kinds of clauses, independent and dependent.

An independent clause expresses a complete thought and can stand by itself as a sentence.

A dependent clause does not express a complete thought and cannot stand alone as a sentence.

Directions: On the lines provided, write a complete sentence by adding an independent clause to each dependent clause below.

Example A: If you work on Monday,

Answer: If you work on Monday, you will have less customers.

1. When the parent arrives,

2. As the lights dim,

3. As the sun rises,

4. No matter how you look at it,

5. Until the sun sets,
