

Why authors would use these devices

Jargon- Authors use jargon because it's very quick to write but they don't want to use it too much because it might confuse the readers

Metonymy- authors use metonymy because instead of having big complicated sentences they can simply change it with a couple of simple words

Onomatopoeia- authors use this so that it's more descriptive and so that the reader can actually imagine it