DRIVING IN FRANCE

The two MOST IMPORTANT things to remember are:

- Drive on the right
- The "priorité à droite" rule – if driving in built up areas, give way to traffic coming from the right (unless there is a clear sign cancelling their right of priority with a stop or a yield sign).

For useful information on driving in France, we recommend you review the following website:

www.rac.co.uk/drive/travel/country/france/

Ensure your motor insurance and breakdown service covers you in France. Bring a European Accident form (obtainable from your insurer) - this must be completed at the time of the accident by the drivers of both vehicles.

Ensure you have all the safety equipment and child seats as required by French law including warning triangle, fluorescent vests, deflector light kits for right-hand drive cars, spare bulbs.
