Job Description

Although a photo booth attendant will typically have limited interaction with the client at an event, the attendant's primary interaction is with the event's guests. The attendant ensures everyone understands how to operate the photo booth and even markets the photo booth and other upgrades to guests that are interested in being future clients.

The photo booth attendant will arrive at the event location initiate contact with the client or the facility/event manager to confirm the logistics regarding the designated area to set up the photo booth. The photo booth attendant will be responsible for verifying that the assigned area for the photo booth is in an appropriate location.

Our attendants must be good at establishing and maintaining positive relationships with clients and outside service providers. Moreover, our photo booth attendants are required to create and maintain a favorable image with other vendors and the public in general.

A photo booth attendant's position requires being reliable, responsible, and dependable and fulfilling obligations. A Rock the Booth attendant is pleasant with others on the job and consistently displays a good-natured, cooperative attitude. In addition to being honest and ethical the position requires developing one's own ways of doing things, guiding oneself with little or no supervision, and depending on oneself to get things done.
