

Thank you for downloading this resource. This poem features lots of examples of using the singular possessive apostrophe.

Suggested ideas to use it are:

- Have children read the poem and see what they notice. Is there anything which appears a lot?
- Can they underline all the examples of the possessive apostrophe?
- Can they copy a verse from the poem, making sure to put the possessive apostrophe in the right place each time?
- Can they write their own poem based on a wizard's spell with their own examples?

Check back at www.bigblogofteachingideas.com for new ideas and resources, updated weekly.

You can sign up on my blog to get a notification when a new post appears, or you can follow me on Twitter at @mrmichaelplews. If you really like what you see on my site, why not leave me a comment?

Kind Regards,

Michael Plews

The Wizard's Spell

The wizard's spell,
Mix it well.

A snake's fang,
A bear's claw,
An eagle's wing,
A lion's roar.

A rhino's strength,
A cheetah's speed,
An elephant's trunk,
A fat pig's greed.

A scorpion's tail,
A white wolf's fur,
A big shark's teeth,
A small cat's purr.

The wizard's spell,
Mix it well.

Top Tip: To show possession or belonging with a singular noun, we add an apostrophe plus the letter s to the end of the word.