

Comparative Analysis Module Outline:

Please fill out the following outline while you are watching the videos, and bring a copy to class.

Comparative analysis is different than a traditional compare/contrast essay, in the following way: _____.

The goal of comparative analysis is to: _____
_____.

When you put two articles in conversation with one another in order to shed light on a topic, continue a discussion, or potentially resolve a problem you are _____.

Questions to consider when you are reading for conversation are:

- (Question 1): _____
- (Question 2): _____
- (Question 3): _____
- (Question 4): _____

Once you have identified the conversation your authors are participating in, the next step is to:
_____.

There are 5 common methods to comparatively analyze two texts:

- (Method 1): _____
- (Method 2): _____
- (Method 3): _____
- (Method 4): _____
- (Method 5): _____

Establishing the grounds for comparison is so important because: _____.

There are two main ways to organize your paper when you are writing a comparative analysis (explain each one briefly):

- (Method 1:) _____

- (Method 2:) _____
