

Outline for a Self-evaluation Report

1. My goals as a teacher of this subject.
2. A rationale for these goals.
3. Progress made in achieving these goals.
4. Methods and sources used to obtain evidence of this progress.
5. The evidence of this progress.
6. What I learned from this evaluation:
 - A. What worked well
 - B. What didn't work so well
 - C. What changes I need to make in how I teach
7. Ways in which I will evaluate future changes to enhance the achievement of my goals in this subject.

Griffith University, Australia

Office of Writing, Research and New Media