Always Alluring Alliteration Practice!

Alliteration happens when a group of words—usually three or more in a row—begin with the same sound. For example: always alluring alliteration is a phrase where three words in a row begin with the “a” sound.

Instructions: After reading Oh Say Can You Say? by Dr. Seuss, fill in the chart with examples of alliteration from the book. Then, complete the items below.

Alliteration Phrase	Sound Used	Tongue Twister

Write your own alliteration phrase using at least 3 words.
