

CLASS - 3A, 3B & 3C

SUBJECT – ENGLISH 2

LESSON 6 – PRONOUN

The students will watch the video given in the website to understand the concept of Pronoun and its types.

- Pronoun – Pronouns are words which are used in place of a noun. It is used to avoid repetition of the noun over and over again. Let us consider the following example-

Seema did not go to school. Seema is ill.

In the above sentence instead of repeating the noun Seema over and over again, we can write it as-

Seema did not go to school. She is ill.

The word she is a pronoun.

- Types of pronoun – Pronouns are of the following types-

 Personal pronoun – It refers to some specific person, place or thing. Personal pronouns are of three types.

- > Personal pronouns of the first person – It refers to the person speaking. The pronouns I, me, mine, we, us, and our are first person pronouns.
- > Personal pronouns of the second person – It refers to the person spoken to. The pronouns you and yours are second person pronouns.
- > Personal pronouns of third person – It refers to the person or thing spoken about. The pronouns he, him, she, her, it, they, their, and them are third person pronouns.

 Demonstrative pronoun – It is used to point out person or things. This, that, these and those are demonstrative pronouns. This and that are singular demonstrative pronoun and these and those are plural demonstrative pronoun.

 Interrogative pronoun – It is used for asking questions. The pronouns what, who, which, whom and whose are interrogative pronouns.

 Reflexive pronoun – It is used when the subject and the object of the action is the same person, animal or thing. The pronouns himself, herself, itself, myself, yourself, ourselves and themselves are reflexive pronoun.
