

Don Bosco English Medium School Monigram

Class 6 Grammar chapter 6 Pronouns

Let's Remember

A. Add the correct pronouns to the blanks below.

Nandita loves sports she could play all the games at school very well. Shania, on the other hand, could sing beautifully and play a number of musical instruments.

They were so different in nature, but loved each other a lot. Their father took an interest in all they did. He taught them to do household chores too. Their mother, a doctor, was a busy woman but she was always present on important occasions they live next to the railway station and their house is very old and famous. It used to be a post office once upon a time.

B Fill in the blanks with suitable pronouns.

There was much excitement among the children they were eagerly looking forward to the annual picnic.

Are we going to Lodhi Gardens too?' wondered Aneesh.

No, you are going to Buddh Jayanti Park with Mrs. Jain' said Mrs. Chopra. The children looked disappointed. 'Won't you be taking us, Ma'am?' they asked.

'Sorry children I have to go to Mumbai for a week, to look after my sick mother. But you will have fun with Mrs. Jain she is full of laughter and you will love being with her the whole day.'. It will not be the same; they grumbled.

C. Rewrite to change the possessive adjectives to possessive pronouns in the following sentences.

1. Is that your pen?

A. Is that pen yours?

2. He thinks this was all your fault.

A. He thinks the fault was all yours.

3. This is his house and his garden.

A. This house and garden are his.

4. You must always keep your promises.

A.Keep promises that are yours.

5. Is this pretty young lady your daughter?

A.Is this pretty young lady a daughter of yours?

6. Did you ask him to settle your debt?

A.Did you ask him to settle debts that are yours?

D.Use suitable reflexive/emphatic pronouns to complete the sentences given below. Then write the names of the pronouns used.

1. Have you looked at yourself (reflexive) in the mirror? You look so pale!

2. She does all her household chores herself (reflexive)

3. They can pick up the parcel themselves (emphatic) from the post office.

4. You can only blame yourself (reflexive) for the delay in submitting the work.

5. We have given ourselves (reflexive) a year to see if the business can succeed.

6. She herself (emphatic) keeps a tab on all the mail that goes out of her office.

7. This incident itself (emphatic) shows how lax their security is.

8. She kept up her morale by telling herself (reflexive) that she only had a few more meters to climb.

9. She accidentally cut herself (reflexive) with the knife while chopping the vegetables.

10. If you promise yourself (reflexive) that will always do your best at everything, you will ultimately do so.

E.Choose the correct option from the given words to complete each of the following sentences.

who whom whose which that

1. The creature that you saw in your dream does not exist in reality.

2. The farmers whom we met on our way are gathering for protests.

3. One of the answers which she gave during the quiz was not correct.

4. The tour leader who asked us to come early is himself late.

5. My cousin whose photograph I showed you is coming to visit us next week.
6. Does the lady whom we are going to meet know that we are coming today?
7. The book which is prescribed for class VI is far too difficult, for the children.
8. Everyone who has been through war times knows that it is devastating for all.
9. Which cap is yours, the blue one or the green one?
10. Whose house is closer to Prashanth's, yours or hers?

F.Fill in the blanks in the sentences, using appropriate pronouns and write their names.

1. I am waiting here for my friend who (personal) are you waiting for?
2. The girl whose (relative) mother is ill is asking for help.
3. This is my purse whose (interrogative) is that?
4. The book which (relative) you had lost has been found by Ira.
5. This is the letter from Rita which (relative) I told you about yesterday.
6. Is it (personal) your dog? Please keep it indoors.
7. The man whom (personal) you were talking to is a famous sports person.
8. We have to select from these three cards which (interrogative) one do you like best?
9. Children whose (relative) essays are still due should give them by the end of this week.
10. The handkerchief which (relative) the police had found belongs to the burglar.
11. The girl whom (relative) you met in the market is my cousin.
12. The book which (relative) you took from me is not mine.

G.Select the best option from those given in the brackets and complete the sentences.

1. I got a strange smell, as if something (nothing/something) was burning.
2. Why didn't anyone (anyone/no one) tell him that the class had started?
3. Somebody (somebody/nobody) will have to go and ask for the teacher's permission for a games period.

4. If you make up your mind, nothing (something/nothing) is impossible.
5. The test was very difficult; so no one (no one/anybody) was happy with the score.
6. Did someone (no one/someone) just knock at the door?
7. I hope you haven't told anyone (anyone/someone) about our secret plan.
8. There is something (nothing/something) not right with him today.

H. The sentences below have pronoun-related errors. Rewrite the sentence by correcting the errors.

1. We haven't seen Anita for many days. We heard that they are unwell.
A. We haven't seen Anita for many days. We heard she is unwell.
2. The children were encouraged to do the project ourselves.
A. The children were encouraged to do the project themselves.
3. Me and Ankita went to see a film last Saturday.
A. Ankita and I went to see a film last Saturday.
4. First try to solve the puzzle himself. If you cannot, then I will give you clues.
A. First try to solve the puzzle yourself. If you cannot, then I will give you clues.
5. You and Hamid could go to the theatre early and buy tickets for all of ourselves.
A. You and Hamid could go to the theatre early and buy tickets for all of us.
6. Father scolded my sister and I for coming back home so late.
A. Father scolded my sister and me for coming back home so late.
7. I love my little brother and never get angry with himself.
A. I love my little brother and never get angry with him.
8. There were no porters to help us so we carried our luggage itself.
A. There were no porters to help us so we carried our luggage ourselves.
9. The pan is very hot. Pick them up very carefully.
A. The pan is very hot. Pick it up very carefully.

10. I did not understand the joke. Can you please tell him once more?

A.I did not understand the joke. Can you please tell it once more?