The Mandela Effect is a theory put forth by writer and “paranormal consultant” Fiona Broome that shared false memories are in fact glimpses into parallel worlds with different timelines.

What is a false memory? An apparent recollection of an event that did not actually occur, especially one of childhood sexual abuse arising from suggestion during psychotherapy.

As a Christian you should have had red flags go up already. Paranormal – that is of satan, dealing in the spirit realm from the occult perspective. Beyond normal experience or scientific explanation.

President of South Africa from 1994 to 1999. Although initially committed to non-violent protest, in association with the SACP he co-founded the militant Umkhonto we Sizwe in 1961, leading a sabotage campaign against the government. In 1962, he was arrested, convicted of conspiracy to overthrow the state, and sentenced to life imprisonment in the Rivonia Trial.

Mandela served 27 years in prison, initially on Robben Island, and later in Pollsmoor Prison and Victor Verster Prison. An international campaign lobbied for his release, which was granted in 1990 amid escalating civil strife.

Why is this “effect” named after Mandela? Because there are those that remember him dying in prison in the 80’s. But online it is stated and portrayed that he was released from prison and actually died December 5, 2013. So there is not agreement on the timing of his death. So since there seems to be a possibility that somehow both are correct, we are realizing that we are indeed in the End of Days as the Bible speaks about.

I want to tell you that so far people have been discussing many different things that they have noticed that have changed. There is an older group of people that remember things one way and a younger group of people that remember the same things a different way. There has been enough evidence left behind for us to scrape together enough proof that this actually has happened.

WORLDLY EXAMPLES OF CHANGES

Chic-Fil-A is now Chick-Fil-A (fast food restaurant in America)

This guy drove past this restaurant every day on his way to the gym and it was always spelled as above. Like me, he always wondered why they spelled it this way, ending with a “C.” One day he noticed the spelling of the name had changed now spelled with a “CK” on the end. And also, he noticed that the place had windows where there had not been any before, and he had not seen any construction happen to add windows either. He went in and asked if they went through any kind of name change or anything. The manager had been working there since 2012 and said no, they had not. She had never heard of it being spelled Chic-fil-a. He said he had been driving by since 2014 and it always had a “C” on the end. She knows nothing about that at all.

How Christians should respond to hate: Column

John S. Dickerson 6:03 a.m. EDT September 21, 2013

Evangelical and LGBT communities don't have to be at war.

I have friends who laugh when I mention discrimination against Christians in the United States. You evangelicals have such a persecution complex, they tell me.

As an evangelical leader and observer, I do believe discrimination against my people is being allowed and even applauded in pockets of America — just as discrimination against homosexuals and others is being allowed in other pockets of the nation.

This time last year Chic-fil-A protests were erupting across the country. The telling moment was not the creative protests, but the public officials who declared the restaurant chain a hate group. Mayors in cities like Chicago and Boston said the private business was no longer welcome in their cities —

I dug around to see what I could find and I found this article in USA Today talking about Chic-fil-a as a “hate group” because they were playing Christian music and someone had complained and you know the rest.

Some other examples of things that have changed with no explanation are:
Berenstein Bears to Berenstain Bears

Forest Gump says, “Life is like a box of chocolates.” Now he says, “Life was like a box of chocolates.”

Star Wars, Darth Vader said, “Luke, I am your father.” Now he says, “No, I am your father.”

From “Snow White,” when the old queen used to look into the mirror and say mirror mirror on the wall, who’s the fairest of them all? Now she says, magic mirror on the wall, who’s the fairest of them all?

“Sex in the City” with Sarah Jessica Parker is now “Sex and the City.”

The book by Ann Rice, “Interview with a Vampire” now reads “Interview with the Vampire.”

No, companies have not changed their logos or the spelling of their logo and spent tons of money to do so. Movies have not been remade or retitled or lines re-recorded. People are on youtube showing evidence of these things having been changed. Books and Movies that people own and have been in their homes in their possession have “magically” changed to new titles and new lines spoken in the movies. The trail from the change, the residue, has not been totally cleaned up. “They” – the elite are working on this now. But many many people are remembering the “old way” and now a newer generation is remembering a new way. This is happening at the same time. It seems like two realities happening at once but it isn’t. Who is behind it? The elite – those that serve satan.

This is from a video that CERN made called: We are "HAPPY" at cern.

This video of Cern's was published in 2014. Notice on the man's lap the poster board that says "Mandela." Yep, there's our clue. They love to think we are playing a big game.

Remember CERN has the god shiva out front of their facility doing his dance of destruction. And just in case you aren't sure about CERN's intentions, let's take a look at their logo.

Pharrell Williams, the singer of the song “Happy” used in the Cern video and Nelson Mandela – Supposedly Mandela died in 2013 although some remember him dying sooner than this.

People who remember Mandela dying in the 80’s in prison:

Robert Crowder30 June 15

I haven’t thought about this in a while , but last week I was going through some boxes @ my Dads home and found some of my old notebooks and it contains a copy of the current event that I turned in the week ending on March 11 , 1983 . My report was only detailed about his death in prison and that he had been sick for a while . It focused on how the country of South Africa was pulled together due to his passing . I did not write the Actual date of his death , but I assume it was earlier that week . We had to turn a current event summary in Every Friday about something that happened that week for my Economics class . I am scanning a copy to my Hard drive but do not see a way to post it here . I did not receive a grade on the paper , just a check at the top of the page to remark that I had done my work . Although I have this paper in hand , It is disturbing to me that what I remember is True . I am kinda Freaked over it . My Dad does not remember it but is confused as to why it exists as he knows I could not have recently planted it there .

Danielle15 August 15

I was in grade 4 in 1997 when I learned nelson Mandela was dead. It was black history month.

My confusion later in life when I heard about him in the news, I was baffled that I believed for so long and so surely he already died.

Bryan24 August 15

The same exact thing happened to me! It was black history month in middle school several of my classmates covered Mandela however one even brought in old laminated news clippings that their parents had saved, I was able to read these with my own two eyes...

Lauren Alise27 August 15

I am the same age as you and I also remember learning about his death in school. 100%. certain.

ture Library of London; Dr. Edward F. Campbell, Jr., Editor of The Biblical Archaeologist; the American Schools of Oriental Research; the University of Michigan Library; Dr. John F. Walvoord and Dr. Merrill F. Unger of Dallas Theological Seminary; Dr. and Mrs. Henry H. Halley of Chicago; Dr. Siegfried H. Horn of Andrews University, and others.

A complete bibliography of all sources of information would obviously be impossible. Selected references have been appended to major articles in order to afford opportunity for further research.

Names of persons and places, for the most part, have been taken from the King James Version, which is still more widely read than any other, but variants occurring in the American Standard Version and in the Revised Standard Version have been noted. Pronunciation follows the practice of the unabridged second edition of Webster's New International Dictionary of the English Language. All Hebrew and Greek names, as well as other names and terms, are followed by their English pronunciations in parentheses. Transliterated Hebrew and Greek words appear in italics, with their meaning when it can be identified. A list of symbols and abbreviations appears on pages xiii and xiv.

Special acknowledgments are due to Dr. Steven Barabas, Associate Editor, who collaborated in preparing articles for publication, and who contributed many himself; to Dr. E. M. effect (Isa. 32:2). Believers are to be a hiding place from the wind (Isa. 32:2). An observation of animal life (Jer. 2:24; 14:16 RSV). Ezekiel scattered hair to symbolize scattering of the people (Ezek. 5:2,10,12; 12:14; 17:21). Strong destructive winds (Jer. 51:1; Ezek. 13:11,13; Hos. 4:19; 13:15). A proverbial expression: "sow the wind, reap the whirlwind" (Hos. 8:7). The weight of the wind (Job 28:25). Believers are warned against evil winds of false doctrine (Eph. 4:4; Jude 12). Stars will fall like figs shaken from a tree by the wind (Rev. 6:13). Wind moved the wings of women carrying an ephah (Zech. 5:9). Wind in Heb. is usually rûah, translated also breath, spirit, etc.; in Gr. ánemos, always wind. Once each, Gr. pneúma, breath, wind, spirit (John 3:8); pnoé, breath (Acts 2:2); the verb pnéo, blow (Acts 27:40).

WINE. Several Heb. words occur, of which two are frequent. Yayin, wine; as a common drink (Gen. 14:18); as a drink-offering (Lev. 23:13); intoxicating (Gen. 9:21); figuratively, of wisdom (Prov. 9:2,5), of wrath (Jer. 25:15), of love (S. of Sol. 1:2; 4:10). Tîrôsh, must, fresh or sweet wine; with approval (Gen. 27:28; Judg. 9:13; II Kings 18:32; Zech. 9:17); once with disapproval (Hos. 4:11). Priests were forbidden to drink wine on duty (Lev. 10:9; Ezek. 44:21). Nazirites were not even to touch grapes while under a vow (Num. 6:5,20; Judg. 13:4-14; Luke 1:15). Abuse of wine is condemned in Proverbs (4:17-31:6), also in the prophets (Isa. 5:11), but God offers wine of His Word (Isa. 55:1). In the NT, Gr. oínos, wine; once gleúkos, new, sweet wine; or grape juice; which may imply that the disciples, known to drink only unfermented grape juice, in their exuberant enthusiasm appeared intoxicated. New wine fermenting would burst old wineskins (Matt. 9:17). Jesus refused the wine offered Him on the cross because it was drugged (Mark 15:25). Jesus contrasts Himself with John the Baptist (Luke 7:33, 4).

WITCH

WITCH, a woman, in early England, also a man, in league with evil spirits. Heb. kāshaph, to practice sorcery, is sometimes so translated in ASV, often in RSV (Exod. 22:18; Deut. 18:10; II Chron. 33:6; II Kings 9:22; Mic. 5:12; Nah. 3:4 ASV charms). Heb. qesem, divination, is once translated "witchcraft" (I Sam. 15:23 KJV, ASV) otherwise "divination." Greek pharmakeía (Gal. 5:20 ASV, RSV sorcery) means the use of drugs, charms or magic words. In Acts 8:9,11, "bewitch" renders Greek exístemi, to amaze; in Galatians 3:1, Greek baskáino, to use the evil eye on one. The famous witch of Endor (I Sam. 28:7-25) is not called a witch in the Bible; KJV, ASV "a woman that hath a familiar spirit," RSV "a woman who is a medium." By whatever name, all such practices are strongly condemned (Exod. 22:18; Deut. 18:9-14; I Sam. 28:3,9; II Kings 23:24; Isa. 8:19; Acts 19:18,19).

WITHE (wíth, wíth, Heb. yether, bowstring, cord), a strong, flexible willow or other twig. The "green withes" with which Samson was bound (Judg. 16:7-9) were probably new (ASV margin) or fresh (RSV) bowstrings.

WITHERED HAND (See Diseases)

WITNESS (Heb. 'ēdh and related forms; Gr. mártys and related words and combinations), one who may be called to testify in court or at which he

Just to be clear when they need to specify ASV, RSV, KJV – they will. Otherwise it is from KJV as on the example of wineskins.

This is from a book titled: "Find it Fast in the Bible" I bought this book online but messed up and it was the newer version and I could not see if it was for KJV or not. The new one did not state anything.

Matt.6:9-13 – After this manner therefore pray ye: Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth (This was on earth) as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. (This was: And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.) And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen.

Kennedy learned this scripture back in Kindergarten from the authorized KJV and she learned it as trespasses/trespass so it has already changed just in 4 years.

Pastor Charles Lawson, a man of God that preaches truth and exposes evil, said he has never seen an assault on the Bible like this before.

Now we all know they have been tampering with the Word of God through the many translations of the Bible. We now have a Kanye West Bible.

Total Blasphemy. This bible replaces the name of God with Kanye’s name.

We have LGBT Bibles.

The Queen James Bible

This is blasphemy as well.

Not only those type of bibles that stand out so easily as blasphemous filth, but don't overlook what has been done to the Word of God through the many translations that we have to make it easier to read as well.

I listened to a great Bible study online and didn't flag it in my playlist on YT. So I went searching for that information because I want you to understand how well preserved the KJ Bible has been.

The study I listened to was by Gail Riplinger in 1996. It's a long study to hear, but well worth your time.

I didn't start out reading KJV, I read an open Bible and praise God He directed me and I did not get off track. Many of the translations out today are meant to actually confuse new Christians, or those seeking Truth. They are meant to lay a foundation for more change to fit the NWO/NWR agenda and that will make it seem ok to take the mark of the beast and that the antichrist is actually Jesus and things like this. This is what the masons/elite do now. They worship "lucifer" (not satan in his fallen state – but they like to think of him as he was in heaven – like he is glorious) and give him names that rival God or seem to say God when in fact they are speaking of lucifer. That is the god who is on our money – not the Lord God Almighty. The same "G" in masonry is for lucifer and the deception of the G is to make new initiates think it is a Christian organization. It is not. When the elite and those in secret societies make a speech and thank God for something it is not the God of the Bible, it is lucifer. They all know who they mean and we foolishly think they are talking about the same God. People have to define what God they are talking about today, because no, we are not all on the same page.

Gail studied the translations thoroughly and found the KJV to be the most sound Word of God we have in the English language. KJV is the closest to what the early church fathers had. She compares mostly to the NIV since it was the leader in the translations that were supposedly made to be easier to read and understand. The other translations are usually as bad as the NIV or worse. What she found was continually when a word was changed from the KJV it was a much bigger more complex word that took its place. When making a work to be copyrighted you have to change so much of a percentage of it before it is considered copyrightable. So what the translators do with each version is just go to the thesaurus and begin to pick different words. Sometimes the choices are just ridiculous. When she plugged all of this in to a computer that did an analysis based on the number of syllables in each word (the more syllables the more complex the word) she found that KJV was rated to read at the 5th grade reading level. All other translations start at the 6th grade and higher.

Luke 4:4 - And Jesus answered him, saying, It is written, That man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word of God. **NIV omits: but by every Word of God.**

Luke 4:18 – NIV omits Jesus came to heal the brokenhearted.

She stated that the omissions in the newer versions serve to make way to include all religions.

In KJV the scriptures will read like this: “The” God, “the” gospel, “The” Savior

The new versions: a God, a Savior, a gospel (opening the door to anything or anyone – antichrist)

You know in the Spanish culture there are many people with the name Jesus. This was the same in Jesus’ day but in KJV where you see Jesus Christ, adding Christ on the end clarified or specified that This was The Anointed One. The new versions are omitting Christ.

Acts 8:37 – where the Eunuch said he believed Jesus Christ is the Son of God.

OMITTED in NIV

WOW!!!

Interesting to note that at this time in 1996 she mentions that KJV had bottles in those questioned passages. But in the book I looked in from 1975 it was wineskins. Not sure when it was changed.

Remember Charlotte Iserbyt

Who spoke openly about the agenda to dumb down America through the school system. There is a budget in place, plans and tests have been run and studies done to bring this about. This is nothing new is has been going on a while.

Now you can clearly see the agenda to dumb us down and away from God and over to satan with what has happened and is happening to our Bibles.

Deut.17:1 – Thou shalt not sacrifice unto the LORD thy God any bullock, or sheep, wherein is blemish, or any evilmfavouredness: for that is an abomination unto the LORD thy God.

Evilmfavouredness is not even a word.

Luke 17:31 – In that day, he which shall be upon the housetop, and his stuff in the house, let him not come down to take it away: and he that is in the field, let him likewise not return back.

My personal confirmation from the Lord:

1 Samuel 10:22 – Therefore they inquired of the LORD further, if the man should yet come thither. And the LORD answered, Behold, he hath hid himself among the stuff. In this passage most other translations say baggage. No way would KJV just say stuff.

Remember how muslims are always saying our Bibles are corrupted and all the claims that they make. Well, that is true in regards to the new translations that have strayed away from God's Word. Isis works for the Vatican, the US and the secret societies. There is an agenda here to discredit the Bible so that we just throw it out, so that others can come against it easier and so that doubt sets in and we turn away from God's Word.

2 Timothy 2:15 - Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth.

Psalms 119:11 - Thy word have I hid in mine heart, that I might not sin against thee.

If you have not been reading God's Word, will you be able to know what is true and what is a lie? When you open your Bible to read and see that the antichrist is shed in a good light and the scriptures seem to say it's ok to take the mark in the End Times, will you be one that is deceived? When scripture reads as if satan and Jesus are one and the same will you know the difference?

Psalms 12:6-7 - The words of the LORD are pure words: as silver tried in a furnace of earth, purified seven times. Thou shalt keep them, O LORD, thou shalt preserve them from this generation for ever.

Amos 8:11-12 - Behold, the days come, saith the Lord GOD, that I will send a famine in the land, not a famine of bread, nor a thirst for water, but of hearing the words of the LORD: And they shall wander from sea to sea, and from the north even to the east, they shall run to and fro to seek the word of the LORD, and shall not find it.

**What happens when those who know/knew the Word of God are gone. As in die off or are gone in the rapture? Then what for those that are left with Bibles that are false??****

And just so we don't forget how evil the elite/our leaders around the world that serve satan are:

Are they capable of doing this? YES! Are they capable of killing a person and just putting their consciousness in a clone and letting us believe it is the real person still alive? YES! We have a mixture of pure evil going on right now. You are not going to get through this without Holy Spirit.

PSY-OP OR MIND CONTROL

"It looked to me like it was sitting on top. I thought: Tonto's got a bird

Matt. 24:24 - For there shall arise false Christs, and false prophets, and shall shew great signs and wonders; insomuch that, if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect.

CLOSING

So they are trying to mess with what has been the best translation that we have of the Word of God. They are succeeding in making little changes here and there. They want to create doubt so that we distrust our Bibles. This all has to happen in order for them to move Christianity into a more inclusive religion instead of an exclusive one. This is preparing the way for New World Religion which is part of the New World Order.

Christianity is not inclusive. It is exclusive. There are not many ways to heaven. There is one way and that is Jesus Christ.

John 14:6 - Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the Truth, and the Life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by Me.

1 Peter 1:25 - But the word of the Lord endureth for ever. And this is the word which by the gospel is preached unto you.

They can change the Bibles, make up translations, water it down – But God's Word will endure and it will come to pass even if all the Bibles were burned and done away with – God’s Word still stands and nothing will make it null and void. They can rewrite it to say anything they want, and what God actually said is still going to come to pass. He speaks to His children by His Holy Spirit and nothing or no one can ever take that away. And about this time/space bending and jumping, God has a set time and nothing they can do will change what He has purposed.
