

	Season Word	Your haiku
1	Cactus Flower	My journey ended Phone opens all spiky pink A cactus flower
2	Moss	Caressing soft moss Sunning on a hard boulder Streaming mountain love
3	Lizard	On the dusty trail Writhing lizard meets my eye Did my boot maim him?
4	Shade Tree	amidst the maples the tiny sparrows Twitter and midnight crows caw
5	Lizard	My stub-tailed lizard/How long have you been hiding/from the roadrunner?
6	Lizard	in the rushing world a small brown lizard in sunlight quiet as a stone
7	Wildfire	sky wrapped in white smoke wildfire burns invisibly past the horizon
8	Floating Lantern	From behind dark clouds The moon, a floating lantern, Lights your sleeping cheek
9	Moss	Time to collect moss We keep it till December And make wreaths with it.
10	Moss	lying on soft moss   in the old cemetery   talking about death
11	Canoe / Kayak	Kayak noiselessly Skimmed along, tried to keep up As they passed her by 12	Wildfire	On hot windy days I only think of wildfires Until the dog barks
13	Shade Tree	Under the shade tree All my loves are with me now Deep rooted aching
14	Wildfire	hazy grey summers -- we have lost our clear blue skies to western wildfires
15	Canoe / Kayak	sheets of rain falling green kayak turned upside down waiting for the sun
16	Shade Tree	Shade tree welcomes me. It beckons with its palmate leaves. I sink slowly, sighing.
17	Wildfire	Only the thick haze sharp stench of burning tree ash alerts us - Wildfire!
18	Floating Lantern	The Anthropocene! Earth itself a memorial - a floating lantern.
19	Cactus Flower	Delicate beauty, a Rose Quartz cactus blossom- smiling a greeting!
20	Shade Tree	In the lush, deep Green- a path by the shade tree opens for my feet to go.
21	Cactus Flower	red cactus flower. crown of thorns blooming blooming. beauty all around

22	Wildfire	Wildfire Karma Flares Clean Air: A Blessing Hoped For ... No Longer Assumed
23	Lizard	Summer's Fat Lizards Scamper from small boys' hands, cats Climate Change Recent
24	Shade Tree	Shade Tree Blessings Now Yard Cooled, Glare Dispelled, Birds Flit Keep Deep Watering
25	Cross Breeze	An Evening Cross Breeze Cooling Coastal Draft Freshens Sleep-Warmed Cheeks, Forehead
26	Perseids	The Perseids move fast, Or have they hardly passed? The night sky is vast.
27	Wildfire	DRY WIND IN SUMMER A WIRE FALLS, SPARKS QUICKLY SPREAD WILDFIRE BROUGHT ME HERE
28	Lizard	FIRST CHAKRA LIZARD DOING PUSHUPS AS I SIT HELLO YOU OLD FRIEND
29	Shade Tree	SHADE TREE DEEP AND DARK SOFT CHAIR, COLD DRINK, A GOOD BOOK SUMMER AT ITS BEST
30	Perseids	The Perseids move fast. Yet, it seems they've hardly passed... The night sky is vast.
31	Wildfire	Wild-fi-res again Heat rising hot choking air Cannot breathe need air
32	Wildfire	It burns, too hot! breath... burning flesh...body fears wildfire. breath...fire...sit...stillness
33	Cross Breeze	Cross breeze, angry breeze; Nudging underneath my nose, A good sneeze will do!
34	Canoe / Kayak	you melt into me/like canoes into water/smooth af first then waves
35	Wildfire	Now without a mask, tiny wildfires in my heart ignite from your smile.
36	Lizard	Oh, my dear tractor! You don't know yet the lizard has dreams in that spot.
37	Cactus Flower	Beautiful infant. Here, then gone. A pale yellow. Desert cactus? No.
38	Shade Tree	Shade tree Light shimmers Translucency ladybug Crawling unknowing
39	Floating Lantern	Muddy river bank Floating lantern goes by slow Light flickers stays lit

40	Cross Breeze	Cross breeze blows gently Pungent smells drift onshore soon Algae blooms kill fish
41	Moss	Vibrant green, soft sponge Baby soft moss, damp pillows Clinging, hanging on
42	Shade Tree	Hot commute from work Few trees branch this avenue Luck to pause in shade
43	Shade Tree	Hot commute from work Few trees branch this avenue Luck to pause in shade
44	Wildfire	Wildfire licks the land's bones black with a tongue still hot from lightning's rough kiss.
45	Lizard	Fascinated fly finds lizard's tongue sticky quick and belly empty.
46	Cactus Flower	Georgia made them blush with undulating wet strokes cactus flower blooms.
47	Canoe / Kayak	Kayak rushes at angry white whips of water flipping once then up.
48	Moss	Moss hangs from oak limbs like those lynched sons and daughters who never saw dawn.
49	Perseids	Gorgon tears fall hot from Algol down the night sky sparking Perseids
50	Floating Lantern	Particulates drift Like O-Bon lanterns into mouths of the unmasked.
51	Shade Tree	Under the shade tree a leaf-soft drop into hair warm scalp tick digs in.
52	Cross Breeze	Manhattan summer cross breeze lifts subway smells up onto hot pavement.
53	Floating Lantern	Illuminated Ha Long Bay aflame Tet lanterns floating
54	Floating Lantern	illuminated  TeT paper lanterns afloat  Midnight Ho Long Bay
55	Moss	Head on mossy spot velvet green caresses rock Humid summer nap

56	Cross Breeze	lace curtains flutter ghost of a cross breeze visits mocking my migraine
57	Cross Breeze	neighbor burning trash blue haired man strikes blue tip match stinky cross breeze blows
58	Cross Breeze	an attic bedroom growing up without AC cross breeze gift from God
59	Moss	Let's sit by the falls Ferns grow on the riverbank And moss on the rocks.
60	Shade Tree	Non stop heavy Rain And Wind brought down our Shade Tree One more casualty
61	Shade Tree	Look for the shade tree! Away from sparks that ignite-- Respite from this life.
62	Perseids	Perseids ablaze-- Distant, fleeting, elusive: Obscured from my sight.
63	Cross Breeze	Stand in the cross breeze: Intersectionality-- Births new beginnings.
64	Cross Breeze	Stand in the cross breeze: Intersectionality-- Birth of a fresh start. (version 2)
65	Canoe / Kayak	Here in Maine we watch The Olympic Canoeing Ironic Zazen
66	Cross Breeze	Maine's cool, cross breezes reveal the family dis-ease High tide's crashing waves
67	Shade Tree	Babbling Raccoon Creek; Wind sends shade trees rippling There to here and back.
68	Cactus Flower	Queen Of The Night White Cactus Flower Opens Multifaceted Eyes Dragon Fly Hovering Delta Virus Empty Garden Chairs
69	Moss	Vondelpark Damp Shady Oak Tree Seagul Rips Open City Trash Bag Greyish Furry Moss Dangling Above My Head
70	Lizard	Lizard Pose Opens Up my Hips Church Tower Clock Strikes One I Smell Wheat A Mile Away
71	Perseids	dust particles float in the sunlight, perseids whirl down in the dark
72	Shade Tree	leafy green shade tree hangs around like a good friend unheeded - till now
73	Cactus Flower	Yellow hibiscus Gift to a dying friend Sits on my porch now.  adapted to requirements:  Red cactus flower Given to a dying friend Sits on my porch now.
74	Shade Tree	shimmering shade tree creating a dancing quilt of sunlight and shade

75	Shade Tree	Sheltered by shade trees Gazing at summer sunlight Through the weave of green
76	Lizard	Broken back lizard On brilliant lego wheel chair Tearful child takes care
77	Cactus Flower	Rose, as it opens, Ardent for light on a green stalk, Blushes deep crimson
78	Lizard	Fear Lizard scrabbling To hide from hawk's eye scanning Covers in stillness
79	Wildfire	is that a big zit he asks in the checkout line in my face, wildfire
80	Lizard	backyard pond. Awake. Tail flashes underwater Bullfrog tadpole.
81	Cross Breeze	Fling open windows Sweet summer rains in the night The butterflies dance
82	Wildfire	My homeland burns Sixty thousand acres black Tomato red sun
83	Wildfire	Wildfire smoke hangs low Osprey emerges from gray precision. Trout flapping.
84	Wildfire	majestic forest cool blue mountain lake ripples smoke obscures all
85	Cross Breeze	cross breezes kiss pink/velvet rose petals--beware/agitated thorns
86	Shade Tree	Beneath this shade tree Sharing some cool water with bees Both tree and bees smile
87	Moss	Regarding the moss Slow breath drinking in deeply Never such a dawn.
88	Wildfire	This year the wildfire Makes the full moon so so red A single tear falls.
89	Cross Breeze	The cooling cross breeze Catches this monk by surprise Without thought I bow.
90	Floating Lantern	Toro Nagashi (floating lanterns) the souls of my ancestors return to the lake
91	Cross Breeze	running the cross breeze between clumps of old hawthorn iron age hill fort

92	Shade Tree	crayfish linguine a shade tree spreads her branches into the river
93	Perseids	out of the darkness her blue eyes sparkle brightly Perseid shower
94	Moss	thorn bramble woodland my daughter sings a fairy out of moss and sticks
95	Wildfire	raging wildfires gulp/precious oxygen spit out/ death and hopelessness
96	Wildfire	disappointed air virus, racism, wildfires the summer of ash
97	Wildfire	Wildfire smoke red moon I hear an old dog crying Here too a tear falls.
98	Cactus Flower	This lone cactus flower Shouldn't be here yet? Letting go I bow.
99	Lizard	San Joaquin Fence Lizard - Sceloporus occidentalis biseriatus  Sun climbing to noon This rock a suitable place Blue bellied lizard
100	Floating Lantern	Floating Lantern Lights  Hundreds of bright lights Tiny prayers for lost loved ones Each a beating heart
101	Shade Tree	Gift  Valley White Oak tree Stands firm against coming drought Gives shade as its gift
102	Wildfire	raging wildfires only chimneys in a town once called paradise
103	Perseids	LIZARD : Dragonfly blue wings   Shimmering in morning sun   Brown lizard races by CACTUS : Creamy waxy bloom   Saguaro standing tallest   cactus wren peeps out PERSEIDS: Waiting sky darkened   Sudden silver flashing across   an ant bites my toe
104	Lizard	eating a carrot / while watching a lizard catch / and eat a cockroach
105	Cactus Flower	aiming for complete / beauty, so thorns included, / the cactus flower
106	Cactus Flower	cactus flowers bloom/in the most hostile places/can love bloom in hate
107	Wildfire	raging wildfires gulp/precious oxygen spit out/death and hopelessness
108	Moss	the moss lends a hand / to the unknowable shrine / in an old forest
109	Moss	stones with moss are now / full of space, and their voices / slow our chattering
110	Cactus Flower	cactus flowers bloom/in the most hostile places/can love bloom in hate
111	Moss	moss all over it – / that old cottage never got / up on its high horse
112	Moss	soundness setting in – / noticing the trees wearing / their different moss frocks
113	Moss	in the moss-drenched woods / I'm perfectly fine being / bereft of my voice
114	Floating Lantern	fragile moths flutter near pale floating lanterns--so hard to say goodbye

115	Cross Breeze	Cross breeze on shaved head Monk's face in the mirror smiles What new blessing this?
116	Cross Breeze	cross breezes kiss pink velvet rose petals--beware agitated thorns
117	Wildfire	wildfire unfolding orange chaos on the loose pre-bardo training
118	Floating Lantern	floating lantern glows finally cast out to sea but leaving my grief
119	Floating Lantern	floating lantern takes her spirit but not my grief now shared with the sea
120	Canoe / Kayak	canoe whispers past dragging a V behind it one sky becomes three
121	Perseids	dark nights splash and play with the Perseids--sparkling fountains in their skies
122	Floating Lantern	pandemic victims float away like lanterns on a boundless ocean
123	Lizard	Semi-aquatic and nocturnal lizard - trafficked globally!
124	Wildfire	wildfires have exposed our refuge of ignorance everything has changed
125	Lizard	politicians hide under righteousness--look quick lizards run to rocks
126	Cross Breeze	Oppressive stillness. The weight of the heat burdens- A Cross Breeze rescue!
127	Canoe / Kayak	Learning to roll down, when a wave hits a kayak- I swallowed my share!
128	Perseids	under Perseids confetti in the night sky but missed the party
129	Perseids	under Perseids I can feel the spirits laugh heavenly joyrides
130	Moss	A little Kannon sits in a wild moss garden - Black Bowl by my desk.
131	Shade Tree	These low clouds and rain- a shade tree from the heated guilt of a noon nap.
132	Cross Breeze	Pink rose fragrance soar cross breeze and mist galore Sun breaks through the fog
133	Cactus Flower	Cactus Flower pink cactus flower soft child and prickly parent juxtaposition

134	Perseids	Hot tub dawn viewing of the Perseid peak fly over - only fell asleep!
135	Lizard	Green Anoles i prefer green anoles bright color and red dewlap my lizard of choice
136	Moss	Moss irresistible velvet and spongy green moss begging to be touched
137	Shade Tree	Shade tree refuge cools hot summer sun beats down Natures umbrella
138	Floating Lantern	What light is yonder? Fire fly in floating lantern Spirit returns home
139	Perseids	Streams of molten light Perseids dash in the night sky Medusa recoils
140	Moss	Humidity swells fog hides, dew drops, moss imbibes Crying puffing eyes
141	Canoe / Kayak	Singular canoe Slides on rushing water stream Ink flows into words
142	Cactus Flower	Cactus flower chants Beware of stinging needles Beauty is skin deep
143	Lizard	Lazy lizard lays Hot rocks and puddle pools Let the sauna steam
144	Wildfire	Wildfire stretching high To see the face of Oneness Kundalini burns
145	Lizard	My eyes closing now All sky basking in the sun No longer lizard
146	Floating Lantern	Cottonwood seeds rise Floating lanterns lit by sun Wind now visible
147	Canoe / Kayak	Floating... slow, now fast! Racing Current -- Rootwad Meet. Kayak... Upside Down!
148	Wildfire	Walks on dusty trails Now before the wildfires come Waterfalls are still 149	Canoe / Kayak	Kayak skims seal dives The tide inhales and exhales Paddle falls silent
150	Cactus Flower	The cactus flowers In place of geraniums No water to spare
151	Moss	dew drops perch brightly atop jade feathered branches plush moss aglisten
152	Moss	feathered branches reach patiently up fog soft bark in moss-paced embrace

153	Wildfire	Wildfires keep dancing across California. Asphyxiation.
154	Lizard	Penetrating sun Blinds lizard's steely bald eye. He sees only light.
155	Cross Breeze	luminescent moon perched above mountain treetops cross breeze cools my face
156	Moss	that mossy forest – / wherever I go it feels / I'm yearning for it
157	Moss	moratorium / from the council of mosses: / no more male leaders
158	Moss	the upshot? for three / hundred million years moss has / lived a grounded life
159	Canoe / Kayak	canoe cloud glides across the blue sky as if was sailing the sea
160	Cross Breeze	insights are not yours they come, go and come again just like a cross breeze
161	Moss	The Vinyl Cafe Or Prairie Home Companion Moss on memories
162	Lizard	in the Zen garden the lizard and the Buddha one with every stone
163	Lizard	climbing up the walls . . . my lizard-like state of mind during the lockdown
164	Cross Breeze	Cross Breeze/ Cross pollinating cherry/ Late August summer
165	Cactus Flower	sharing the silence with a thousand desert stars . . . lone cactus flower
166	Cactus Flower	living in small pots at the town garden center trained cactus flowers
167	Wildfire	Wildfire and rainstorms Elemental craziness High gear climate change
168	Lizard	Lizard sleeping/ in Susan' hand/ I take for myself
169	Canoe / Kayak	Sunrise canoe ride I'm drifting and awaiting the sound of the Loon
170	Lizard	Lizards do push-ups Birds sing, dogs bark, and snakes hiss Humans do it all
171	Wildfire	Wild wildfires/ in Manavgat Selalesi/ tears on Turkish TV
172	Lizard	1-2-5-7-5/ Can you count/ in an order of a notebook
173	Lizard	Forgot lizard/ in last haikan/ sunshine on orange bucket
174	Cactus Flower	Desolate desert the cactus flower appears Who is there to see?
175	Moss	Collecting moss/ next to the orchids/ on our windowsill
176	Floating Lantern	when my time comes/ walking aimlessly/with floating lanterns
177	Canoe / Kayak	Rushing waterfalls Yakety-yak kayak creaks Noise moving swiftly
178	Shade Tree	Afterwards will become/ a shade tree/ for families to rest under

179	Moss	Plant, fungus and algae Moss and lichen, forest friends Similar but not
180	Canoe / Kayak	Fogged declivity Upon ripples canoe floats whilst watching the kelp
181	Perseids	Perseids fireballs Bigger, brighter, lasts longer Fleeting like pleasure
182	Floating Lantern	Floating lantern sinks Hell realms stand-by for welcome Spirit departed
183	Canoe / Kayak	Synchronized circles Two kayaks pulled from the lake no breakfast in hand
184	Shade Tree	Welcome site, shade tree Beneath, comfort ambience Like death in a bed
185	Shade Tree	Shade trees' arms outstretched Highways for morning's rush hour seeking sustenance
186	Perseids	Perseids stardust We watch as her memory fades, helplessly
187	Cross Breeze	Bounced sideways down steps Cross breeze strong, tornado turns Swept me off my feet
188	Canoe / Kayak	On the water's face our canoe's reflection waits... The canoe waits too...
189	Moss	Five hundred Buddhas all covered with dark green moss... Parasumgate!  I think of you now walking among those cold stones... Moss hiding the names...  You grow on me like moss growing on this stone... Rootless but so close...
190	Shade Tree	Backlit glow of sun leaves stir within oak tree's shade- cool, calm canopy
191	Cactus Flower	her only night out donning her strongest perfume cactus flower blooms
192	Canoe / Kayak	a tippy canoe carries two girls peacefully but not the hornet
193	Moss	coming back to life after all these years dormant me and desert moss
194	Canoe / Kayak	surrounded by stars I am nothing and all things in a borrowed canoe
195	Shade Tree	A cityscape there A wall of lush shade trees and All the space between

196	Cross Breeze	Cirque du Soleiling on the cross breeze a spider lands in my haiku
197	Canoe / Kayak	A lone red canoe casted away and fading under a pine tree
198	Canoe / Kayak	in life and canoes I rock the boat only when standing up for things
199	Cross Breeze	Silken shield of rain Opaque orbs, reflecting clouds Glasses hovering
200	Floating Lantern	City of lanterns,/ lights shimmer on the river,/ floating out to sea
201	Floating Lantern	Set the lanterns free— spirits too light to contain, floating through the stars
202	Cross Breeze	Cross breeze passes through,/ throwing caution to the wind,/ stirring up trouble
203	Lizard	Peace in the garden The company of lizards Caress of the breeze
204	Cross Breeze	misunderstanding,/ the gentle cross breeze becomes/ a raging windstorm
205	Shade Tree	under the shade tree- wildflower blooms leaping from plastic corral
206	Moss	sleeping next to you/ beneath a blanket of stars—/ our soft bed of moss
207	Moss	where the moss grows green/ in dark hidden crevices/ a midsummer dream
208	Moss	All the southern belles,/ lace dripping from their shoulders/ Spanish moss and rings
209	Moss	In dark crevices,/ moist and deep, where soft moss grows,/ I will meet you there
210	Cactus Flower	cactus flower blooms still open under hot sun attract napping bees
211	Cross Breeze	bosque cicada - kettle drum abdomen buzz a cross breeze choir

212	Shade Tree	weak from my labors I rest under dappled sun . . . you stingy shade tree!
213	Lizard	Little striped whiptail - lizard in the glass graveyard darting for cover
214	Canoe / Kayak	canoe in swampland - cross an alligator path to platform campsite
215	Shade Tree	the shade tree, no match/ for the tenebrous tendrils, of weeping widows
216	Lizard	Flickering lightly across the hot earth like flames lizard's tiny toes
217	Lizard	Their romantic nights in a Balinese thatched hut lizards making love
218	Cactus Flower	Poor cactus flower Rapunzeled up there atop your tower of thorns
219	Cactus Flower	Untouchable pure sometimes playing the martyr white cactus flower
220	Canoe / Kayak	The lake so quiet and sad today my canoe cuts right through its heart
221	Canoe / Kayak	Weaving so deftly among yachts in the harbor our little kayak
222	Moss	On a cold stone path the zen garden's softened by unenlightened moss
223	Moss	Old mobile home parked on a mossy concrete pad getting nowhere fast
224	Floating Lantern	Drifting in the dark two small candles meet then part floating lantern world
225	Floating Lantern	Floating candles drift past a million flick'ring lights TV screens on shore
226	Floating Lantern	Burning our letters bits of ash rise to scatter floating lantern words
227	Floating Lantern	Paddling fast toward a floating lantern on the river never reaching my goal.
228	Cactus Flower	Waves of heat return after rains on the desert. Cactus flowers fall.
229	Shade Tree	An old furry hound collapses under a shade tree - bones are loosening.
230	Floating Lantern	He strikes a long match light the floating lantern glowing in beauty.

231	Shade Tree	Evening finds the hound lingering under a shade tree, passing away time.
232	Cross Breeze	The light cross breeze brings the smell of grilled meat inside. We lift beers in joy.
233	Lizard	A lizard flashes from a curly leaf yucca. My heart races too.
234	Shade Tree	Lightning bugs like strings of light. Loud music nearby. A shade tree turns red.
235	Wildfire	Flee, flee, if you can. Wildfire cleans all in its path. Blessed rain. Rebirth.
236	Lizard	Darting green up wall. Squeal of delight from children. The lizard is fast!
237	Wildfire	losing Paradise/ animals and angels flee, inferno's wildfire
238	Cactus Flower	A pop of magic. Plush beauty among the spines. Cactus flower blooming.
239	Canoe / Kayak	Fighting the current. Strength, determination. Let the canoe drift.
240	Moss	Critical to life. Reducing to components. Moss will oulive us.
241	Perseids	Frustrated grumble. Heavy overcast again. Perseids pass unseen.
242	Floating Lantern	Praire and forests, weep for the missing children. Passing floating laterns.
243	Shade Tree	Heat. Humidity. Panting dog under shade tree. Life can be simple.
244	Cross Breeze	Piercing midday sun. Dappled light from lattice screen. Relaxing cross breeze.
245	Moss	autumn nears, summer dies all seasons grow lush green moss soft and flowerless
246	Canoe / Kayak	caught in tall cattails a stalled lonely blue kayak no knots to tie down
247	Shade Tree	Shade tree Breeze floating through Summers gift
248	Lizard	Lizard lounging With hooded curious eyes Now doing push-ups
249	Lizard	Emerging from stones/ Lizard shadow lizard shape/ Baking mountain ridge
250	Cactus Flower	Orange cactus flower/blooms in the hot desert air/nature's miracle
251	Cactus Flower	Gold cactus flower Watching sun turn cliffs to flame Heart opens to you
252	Cactus Flower	Thorny desert sphere Tenderness pierces my heart Gold cactus flower
253	Cactus Flower	First light smudged with fog Gold cactus flower appears Like honeyed sunlight
254	Canoe / Kayak	A lone grasshopper Floating by my red kayak Is a black duck's snack

255	Canoe / Kayak	Today's Flood, Thunder - Rapid, Disappearing Floor Where is my Canoe
256	Wildfire	Wildfire Haze and Smoke I hear my own voice ECHO "I can't BREATHE!"
257	Floating Lantern	Sakura River Cold Sake is now Hot... Our Floating Lantern Sinks
258	Floating Lantern	Praying, Switching On Floating Lantern's Battery Charming, Soft, Red Light
259	Moss	Not Moss Covered Stone -- Woven Grass Markers of the Poor Behind Our Temple
260	Moss	Izusan's Sorrow Weeping Skies Deluge... Lost Gods, People... Moss in Mud
261	Perseids	Too excited for sleep -- I carefully set the alarm To meet Perseids
262	Perseids	Streaking perseids, From zenith to horizon, Slicing firmament.
263	Cactus Flower	Bats fluttering near Nightblooming cactus flowers: A nocturnal feast.
264	Floating Lantern	The floating lantern, from my dream...I saw it there right in front of me.
265	Floating Lantern	The floating lantern, from my dream...I found it here, right in front of me.
266	Perseids	Perseids vanish equanimity lost in wishes on a star
267	Canoe / Kayak	Young woman tows my kayak against the current. Humble, I arrive.
268	Wildfire	chlorine memories full moon summers in the pool turn wildfire orange
269	Shade Tree	prairie cumulus . . . the indigenous child's grave under the shade tree
270	Perseids	Perseids storming Unrelenting paper cuts Firmament unharmed
271	Canoe / Kayak	Overtaken kayak floating down a cataract... Pilot is missing.
272	Perseids	He is dying now In this dark time we look up Perseids blaze by 273	Wildfire	Wildfire smoke thickens Wildlife flee across the yard Now the red sun sets

274	Moss	There is no moss here High desert garden bone dry Just two zucchini
275	Cross Breeze	Cross breeze grabs a chance When the screen door falls off track Sweep this heat away
276	Perseids	sickle moon in bue tonight the flashing Perseids while I drink Earl Grey
277	Floating Lantern	cool august twilight: so few floating lanterns now without fireflies
278	Shade Tree	less and less desire for the wide lichen'd shade tree – cool august morning
279	Shade Tree	barefoot 'til august when ragweed towers: shade trees for innocent snakes
280	Canoe / Kayak	Kayaking, I check the oyster traps: they're filling up. I know that feeling.
281	Canoe / Kayak	Old wooden canoe Gliding the cool moon lit lake Hot city daydream
282	Cactus Flower	Cactus flower melts Like a rainbow in your hand. You become clear light.
283	Canoe / Kayak	Old wooden canoe Gliding the cool moon lit lake Hot city daydream
284	Shade Tree	Unrelenting heat a shade tree has found shelter under a shade tree
285	Shade Tree	Shade tree stop pulling your cool dark sheet off of me I'm taking a nap
286	Cross Breeze	Hot red fearful self Cooling cross breezes blow in It all belongs here
287	Perseids	Broken Pottery Bits Spread as a Perseids Shower Across the kitchen floor
288	Shade Tree	Under the Shade Tree Gate Gate cool refuge Away from the heat
289	Wildfire	Wildfire scorched landscape Beauty diminished, life gone Ashes only left
290	Lizard	Lizard latitude Minutes before it scurries 6° separation
291	Cactus Flower	Queen of the night rise Cactus flower cereus Come close darkness bloom
292	Canoe / Kayak	Silent ride canoe Early morning mist and dew Look, listen, and be

293	Moss	Warm, humid forest Moss luxuriates on rocks Smile, self cherishment
294	Perseids	Perseids light stream Bombarding tonight's dreamscape God's firework display
295	Floating Lantern	Floating lantern fun Air bound, downriver, prayers written Spirits laugh and play
296	Shade Tree	Shade tree cover it Forget what is past and done Trauma shivers flesh
297	Cross Breeze	Summer cross breeze chimes pine-hush. Horses drum, flick flies from each other's necks.
298	Cross Breeze	Cross breeze cause goosebumps Arm hairs rise, smell is heightened Ghost communicates
299	Wildfire	my grandfather's farm lost in the year of wildfires— he sits in darkness
300	Canoe / Kayak	our canoe gliding through ripples in the old pond haiku everywhere
301	Moss	old cemetery . . . the moss filling the brick path thickens in silence
302	Wildfire	Summer Corona/ bursts into Delta wildfires/ no vacation here.
303	Lizard	Fall kisses summer lizards find still warm patches time to shed old skins.
304	Shade Tree	Ancient shade tree falls Two dogs, mother and son hear father breathe last breath
305	Shade Tree	under the shade tree, my shadow so bold and free is suddenly shy
306	Canoe / Kayak	swift river of time dwindles down to a trickle... portage the canoe
307	Perseids	apocalyptic like horsemen at a gallop Perseid shower  Perseid showers-- space tidying up its dust mama would be pleased
308	Wildfire	Dread makes me mistake the orange glow of sunset for a fierce wildfire
309	Wildfire	Sunset's orange glow at once enhanced and concealed by raging wildfires
310	Lizard	A contemplation: Why are the lizards doing push-ups this morning?

311	Lizard	In my absent gaze at the old cinderblock wall, a lizard darts by
312	Floating Lantern	on the horizon the sun sets in a green flash— a floating lantern
313	Lizard	Crisis behind the potato bush - is that why the lizard scurries?
314	Lizard	Lizard Man emerged iguana on his shoulder - all true, I have pics
315	Lizard	watching Godzilla at the drive-in theater— lizard's face agog
316	Lizard	lizard contestants push-up challenge at the wall just like the neighbors
317	Wildfire	Sparked by two oak tress And stroked by the southern wind Wildfire engulfed homes  Burning down old bushes You nourish new beginnings Oh, mighty wildfire!
318	Cross Breeze	in the stifling heat we prayed for cross breeze; it came straight from the pig farm
319	Cross Breeze	An old poet's heart Awakened by the cross breeze Haiku, you soothe me
320	Lizard	He darts, looks around and pauses to regard me the lowly lizard.
321	Moss	I don't see the moss anywhere, even though I look. I wonder why not?
322	Moss	the creak of old trees above moss constellations named by ancient elves
323	Cactus Flower	little urban prince carefully tends his desert bonsai cactus bloom
324	Canoe / Kayak	Warm lake summer sun. Drifting backwards in circles. Our kayak giggles.
325	Floating Lantern	Our floating lantern. River holds the light softly. Your beautiful smile.
326	Wildfire	wildfires from the north become shroud, the cloak we wear sunrise: red of Mars  hazy wildfire life the sun is mars, sky glows green on the ground, squirrel digging
327	Shade Tree	What to do with it All this freedom - I wonder Under a shade tree
328	Cactus Flower	Baptists' trucks and cars Parking lot Cactus flower Unconditional

329	Canoe / Kayak	kayak waterbug skims on the surface of things comb through cold water kayak spills over delight water immersion turtle leaps off rock counting counting strokes five kayaks maybe seven so much depth below
330	Lizard	Shimmering lizard Sailing swells of taught side skin Towards a still sun
331	Floating Lantern	floating lantern chant sung on bridge drifts upward carried to ocean on peace garden bridge anicca chant wafts upward floating lanterns soar words, floating lanterns chanted on peace garden bridge carry spirits home here on zigzag bridge words chanted, floating lanterns spirits carried home peace ceremony cranes folded, floating lanterns so many lives lost paper cranes on trees floating lanterns of prayer vows not to forget
332	Cross Breeze	A Cross Breeze arrives Here and also just passing through Two or three windows
333	Canoe / Kayak	Us two canoeing Stagnant Arkansas water Time for a divorce
334	Lizard	This lizard's tail says   You too will grow back anew   Handle us gently
335	Canoe / Kayak	Deep water below / Teeming with disappointment / My kayak floats on /
336	Cactus Flower	cactus flower ruse can't say yes and can't say no oh, that could be ahh
337	Floating Lantern	one floating lantern the land of ten thousand lakes that's a tall order
338	Shade Tree	reticent shade tree covert lust for hottest rays making cool bedding
339	Cross Breeze	Black butterfly rests. Smoke tree moves in cross breezes. Soft wings rise above.

340	Wildfire	wildfire genesis— a match and a little man with nothing to lose
341	Wildfire	leaping from mountain to mountain—the dervish dance of wildfire devils
342	Wildfire	all these tiny sparks born to incinerate worlds... we are all wildfires
343	Wildfire	fleeing two by two— ain't no Noah's Ark coming to this wildfire world
344	Shade Tree	Shade tree's green ripple The wonder of summer breeze Bird and I, mouths gape.
345	Cross Breeze	cross breezes blowing this way and that : I leave room in life for wonder
346	Cross Breeze	The sharp pungent smell Of the geranium leaf Cross breeze on the porch
347	Canoe / Kayak	Mountain lake clear view/empty kayak empty mind/ goes no direction
348	Lizard	The tail-less lizard/I hid in the petunias./Where did it go, cat?
349	Floating Lantern	Floating lanterns launched --/summer camp so long ago--/fire on rapids.
350	Cactus Flower	Young cactus flower,/her bright pink tutu/covered with black flies.
351	Cross Breeze	Evening cross breeze cools/in one door,out the other./I have wasted my life.
352	Moss	Let me be your moss Blanketing your sharp edges Brightening your greys
353	Lizard	still as a statue a lizard fakes a mustache across Buddha's lip
354	Cactus Flower	years in the closet cactus finally comes out sprouting a flower
355	Canoe / Kayak	kayaking at dawn... the slow spread of forever across the water
356	Canoe / Kayak	with hardly a sound a canoe slips the river past the waiting bend
357	Shade Tree	Green! tomato worm. Red! bird eats tomato worm. Shade! tree shelters both 358	Moss	dressed up in green moss the old stone wall of the woods finally fits in
359	Shade Tree	Aspen grove quaking Dabbled light on my crossed legs Old friends, those shade trees
360	Floating Lantern	floating lantern ghosts... the pull of the afterlife at the river's end
361	Cactus Flower	Blooming for one day Cactus flower flamboyance There is only Now

362	Shade Tree	The old maple dropped its winged helicopter seeds in the cool grass shade
363	Cross Breeze	stealing its way through the house, the cross breeze absconds with the apple pie
364	Shade Tree	Under the shade tree we licked the winged pods and stuck them to our noses
365	Lizard	She ran from the beach Shouting "Baby Dinosaur!" As the lizard fled
366	Canoe / Kayak	Kayak transforms me Part woman, part sea creature No holding me back
367	Wildfire	Wildfire season arrives    I still remember holding.    my children's small hands
368	Wildfire	thunder lightening speaks wildfire anxious to answer sun blood red orange
369	Cross Breeze	Night Heron  Black-crowned night heron... On limb with Maui cross breeze, Sitting still, seeing.
370	Perseids	Streaking Perseids, from zenith to horizon, slice the firmament.
371	Lizard	Lizards do push-ups on 45° rock. Not a drop of sweat.
372	Shade Tree	Up in my shade tree Cicada's Opus unfolds Lulling me to sleep.
373	Cross Breeze	"Die Phoenician scum," the very cross breeze muttered. "You haven't seen heat!"
374	Cactus Flower	leaves are dry and dead notebooks like cactus flowers marked her dreams in time
375	Cross Breeze	woman sitting there cross breeze of eternal sea hear the sea gulls cry
376	Floating Lantern	Wisping incense wafts floating lanterns breathing by ancestors calling
377	Moss	Glistening dense brush burrowed hole on mossy grave femur bone is lost
378	Wildfire	MORNING MEDITATION  As I sit, my mind Raging at yesterday's slight Like a wildfire burns
379	Canoe / Kayak	PADDLING LAPLAND LAKE  Early lake-top mist Like rice bowl steam rises up Over my canoe

380	Moss	MORNING QIGONG  Standing like a tree, Mosquitos, moss, rocky creek Young doe turns her head.
381	Cactus Flower	Dine-in or take-out a yellow teacup, brimmed with bees--cactus flower
382	Cactus Flower	One cactus flower. So alluring, and honeyed. Exquisite lover.
383	Lizard	Brown lizard on stone, leaf green insect in quick mouth. Bright wings fall to earth.
384	Wildfire	Wildfire devours where sparks blossomed in grass turned gold. A holocaust roars.
385	Shade Tree	Shade tree in a field, with crackling twigs and sighing alone and forlorn.
386	Moss	Tiny moss cushions for my waking dreams, around a small waterfall.
387	Perseids	Gazing Up Perseids Streaking The Sky Two Reclining Lawn Chairs Blown Away Blown Away You Too
388	Wildfire	I hear of wildfires raging smoke and roaring flame —branches brace themselves
389	Wildfire	Our mother earth weeps Apocalyptic wildfires Flames lapping with pain
390	Shade Tree	Underneath Shade Tree I Dream Of A Kiss Dark Red Mulberry Falls On My Head Blackbird Not Shy Foraging For Food
391	Floating Lantern	So many dying Floating lanterns burn my eyes Heavy tears sink me
392	Cross Breeze	a fresh cross breeze passing by my living room visit of the day
393	Cactus Flower	May my darling's heart bloom - a red cactus flower in the surgeon's hands.
394	Lizard	Pup spots lizard tail Flipping between sun soaked rock Let the games begin.
395	Cross Breeze	No cross breezes now Windows shut to Northern smoke Season of fires
396	Shade Tree	Ballerina tree Gracefully sways on hillside Bending with the breeze

397	Perseids	No birthdates exist holocaust ancestors dance Perceids lumines sky
398	Shade Tree	I rest below her My Ballerina shade tree Her dance cools me down.
399	Floating Lantern	patient the sea waits restless souls longing for peace floating lanterns lit
400	Wildfire	thunder lightening speak wildfire anxious to answer sun blood orange red
401	Cross Breeze	Surrender to heat Or open up two windows Accept the cool breeze
402	Wildfire	drifting wildfire smoke . . . ashes falling here and there on wedding tables
403	Moss	wet moss in deep woods so much more luxuriant in just our bare feet
404	Floating Lantern	the floating lanterns made for Hiroshima Day drifting into shore
405	Cactus Flower	Spines on thick skin still. Cactus flowers sit on top. Trembling with bees.
406	Floating Lantern	The floating lantern Leading the way to the dead Waiting for my turn
407	Wildfire	Starving wildfire jumpy and blind, on the run heedless and heartless
408	Cactus Flower	bloom and shine all-ways no matter how hard the soil cactus flower says
409	Wildfire	Raging wildfire Chasing a motherless bird Blue bird, fly away!
410	Shade Tree	Sycamore shade tree shadow lies soft on the grass encircled by Light
411	Wildfire	Cosmic red cosmos, Pansy, milkweed, zinnia. Garden wildfire blaze.
412	Floating Lantern	like floating lantern those present past and future impermanence is 413	Moss	My dog runs swiftly. Circles around ancient rock. Green moss grows forever.
414	Cross Breeze	Hydrants stuttering. Bodies, dripping, seek relief. Go inside. Cross breeze
415	Cactus Flower	I am a Sabra. Tough skin, sweet plump fruit. Cactus flowering.

416	Floating Lantern	Like my dearest friend This floating lanterns bright flame still burns, but hidden
417	Wildfire	California friends. Smokey, sooty everywhere. Wildfires burning.
418	Lizard	Lizard slithers here. How ancient your ancestors? He glides silently.
419	Floating Lantern	On a summer eve Imagine floating lanterns. Sit still. Write haiku.
420	Shade Tree	Cold winter morning. All outside is bare and stark. August now; seek shade tree.
421	Floating Lantern	This floating lantern drifts In the bardo, reminds me Never to forget
422	Cross Breeze	the mountain call me whispering sounds of silence a cross breeze passes
423	Lizard	a display of strength to avoid confrontation: a lizard's logic
424	Lizard	a challenge to claim territory - my neighbors, like lizards, push up
425	Lizard	fat lizards this year: one waddled across the deck and ventured push-ups
426	Wildfire	we need this water welcoming precious monsoon wildfire is calming
427	Lizard	fat waddling lizards like those old guys at the bar glory days are gone
428	Cactus Flower	cactus flower fun ensuring diversity we should do the same
429	Cactus Flower	cactus flower bud daily anticipation until it blossoms
430	Cactus Flower	the cactus flower only blooms in the hot night when her lover calls
431	Shade Tree	summer drought – / even this dying oak holds shade / for my sweaty back
432	Cactus Flower	cactus flower swirls to open to the blessing of the rising moon
433	Lizard	yet again, again / lizards scuttle from rocks as / the sun walks closer
434	Lizard	a single lizard / sits on a bright stone – / I stop to notice
435	Lizard	a lizard scuttling / from under a fallen tree – / the sound of dead leaves
436	Cactus Flower	cactus flower swirls open to greet her consort the night spiraling

437	Wildfire	wildfires from the north – / my eyes take in blood-orange / sun's thick pigment
438	Wildfire	from a laurel grove / acorn peckers' screech screech screech – / faint smell of wildfire
439	Floating Lantern	the moon's thin crescent / floats too – traces of my mom's / laughter inside me
440	Shade Tree	Replacing my first submission: Father breathes a last breath Two dogs, wife and son listen Their shade tree fallen
441	Cactus Flower	Cactus flower swirls open to greet her consort the night spiraling  (sorry I may have submitted this twice - I got some shocking news after the last submission)
442	Moss	the moss used to weep along the rainforest path - now it's only I
443	Moss	brilliant green carpet moss of my childhood beckons me: come and lie down
444	Moss	the ground covered by a blanket of luxury: velvety green moss
445	Moss	dry splintered gray stump held intact by yellowing moss: the cemetery
446	Moss	where the tree was cut: old injury soothed by moss and fungus nurses
447	Moss	the rainforest path is missing the lavish green moss of my childhood
448	Moss	the moss cannot soothe the old tree severed from its ancient other half
449	Moss	to make way for me walking on the forest path moss meets me mourning  (This is really a continuation of the previous submission - I meant to put them together, as  the moss cannot soothe the old tree severed from its ancient other half - to make way for me walking on the forest path moss meets me mourning  Not sure if that's allowed - and the second one doesn't work that well without the first...)
450	Moss	burl exploded with ferns, clover, and moss - just off the manicured path
451	Moss	the mosses sunbathe on rocks in the river but they yearn to rain-bathe
452	Moss	moss, dry and yellow, protects branches, old and gray, from the sun's bright glare

453	Moss	the old gray shingles of the expensive hotel harbor moss in spite
454	Moss	on a mossy log seagulls in one row against their nemesis: wind
455	Moss	log covered with moss one row of seagulls perched atop let tired bodies rest
456	Moss	a bed of velvet so young and green my heart hurts I remember moss
457	Moss	moss matrimony: stuck apart but united by a spider web
458	Floating Lantern	lighting a candle, stuck at home, I imagine a floating lantern
459	Shade Tree	green wide canopy my protection from the sun rustling leaves and shade
460	Shade Tree	new homes going up uprooting trees to clear lots the shade tree's soul crushed
461	Shade Tree	shade tree canopy my protection from the sun rustling leaves and peace
462	Cross Breeze	catching a cross breeze in my grandparent's old house cicadas buzzing
463	Cross Breeze	a cross breeze whispered as i quietly daydreamed a gauze curtain stirred
464	Canoe / Kayak	out in my canoe cold, clear spring water flowing gliding and thinking the open windows--

 our irritation cools down in the cross breeze

 a green grasshopper fills the gray fence lizard's mouth
 ...the pulse of his nose

 the gray fence lizard-- all twenty toes teetering on the swinging gate

 the lizard descends
 scrambling in and out a shimmering clematis

 the vanishing trick-- a blue lizard disappears in the old stone wall

 on the wooden post
 a gray fence lizard poses stands by his namesake

 moving down river stars in paper lanterns
 ferry mother's soul

 in paper lanterns
 ancient souls float downriver in thin threaded time

 so many small stars
 navigating the river
 in paper lanterns

 the granite boulder-- wearing away its nature the soft green mosses

 in the spoon leafed moss
 a forging bluebird hunts grubs for her newborn chicks

 under the shade tree mounding pin cushion mosses sans pins and needles

 a forest of moss
 uprooted by mockingbirds-- the chickadee nest

 floating belly up
 we watch from the Atlantic the sky streaked perseids

466	Wildfire	Fueled by spite and rage lies ignite his wildfire tongue, inflaming the world.
467	Wildfire	Returning each year Wildfires no longer surprise Wildflowers delight.
468	Moss	Moss warms the tree roots Flirting with your green beauty No foot will touch you.
469	Canoe / Kayak	Kayaks splash with joy Turn upside down inside out I am a turtle
470	Shade Tree	finally summer in the balcony's shade tree the delighted cat
471	Cactus Flower	In a dream I hug one who pricks my soft skin like a cactus flower
472	Lizard	Worm, flies, grasshoppers Lunch at the Lizard Cafe Crickets for dessert
473	Lizard	Blue bellied lizard Doing push ups in the sun Jumps to catch a fly
474	Cactus Flower	Cactus flowers bloom Hot Pink, Ruby Red, Snow White Dionysus calls
475	Cactus Flower	White petals adorn Old Grandmother Saguaro with cactus flowers
476	Cactus Flower	Bacchanalia Ruby red cactus flowers Bees making honey
477	Cactus Flower	Ruby Red, Snow White Cactus flowers adorning the Proud old saguaro
478	Cactus Flower	White Cactus Flowers Old Grandmother Saguaro Got dressed up today
479	Wildfire	wildfire cast clouds shroud the sun of distant skies laden with ash
480	Lizard	lizard nestles in sun hot dirt gathering warmth to sustain the night
481	Wildfire	Scent of wildfire Is carried on the wind No time to weep.....RUN
482	Wildfire	Being with what is The sting of impermanence Wild Fire. Great Teacher.
483	Wildfire	Arsonist lights match Wildfire storms through the canyon What is this madness?

484	Shade Tree	perfect summer day not a shade tree to be found we wallow indoors
485	Wildfire	Wind, Wildfire, Red Sky Forest floor now a graveyard Great Mother wailing
486	Cross Breeze	stultifying heat until a cross breeze arose she rejoiced: fresh air
487	Wildfire	Crows scream a warning Wildfire on the horizon Doe runs for her life
488	Wildfire	Closing my eyes Hot salty tears burn my face Wildfire, Ashes, Grief
489	Wildfire	Vast Wildfires Raging inside and outside Tears flow, raindrops fall.
490	Wildfire	Nothing but charred earth As far as the eye can see Wildfire. Great Sorrow.
491	Wildfire	Scorched earth and wildfire The old forest is grieving Grandmother trees....GONE
492	Wildfire	Sing for the madrone Sing for the manzanita Sing the Wildfire Blues
493	Cross Breeze	so hot we can't breathe until Hygieia exhaled cross breeze cathedral
494	Wildfire	Sing for coyote Sing for raven, hawk and jay Sing the Wildfire Blues
495	Wildfire	Sing to butterfly Sing to heron and egret Sing the Wildfire Blues
496	Wildfire	Sing to great condor Sing to red fox and grey wolf Sing the WildFire Blues
497	Wildfire	wildfire fire spreads golden flames sweep evia explode olive trees
498	Lizard	that boy liked crossing his brown eyes at the lizard resting on his nose
499	Shade Tree	Brazilian winter solitary, the shade tree claims the earth to turn
500	Cactus Flower	A cactus flower blooming once in the courtyard became a photo
501	Wildfire	Muggy dull weather Still a butterfly whirls wildfire's sunrise
502	Wildfire	Wind, Wildfire, Red Sky Forest floor now a charnel ground Hear Kali wailing

503	Canoe / Kayak	dirt path and canoe by the waters edge who leaves or approaches here
504	Moss	Feet sink into moss A cushion of primal ease. One with the breeze.
505	Moss	moss beside the path waiting waiting for something to fall and lie here
506	Cross Breeze	Still... Trees a'waiting Sunrise warmth, crossed by a breeze. Joyous... each leaf bows.
507	Perseids	perseid shower I will not see it tonight from the thick forest
508	Wildfire	Untouched by wildfire    Blooming above the seared soil    Fawn lilies rejoice
509	Wildfire	Amazon wildfires the economy lightning how many to breathe?
510	Floating Lantern	you can say it's moon or a large floating lantern on a wine dark sea
511	Wildfire	Wildfire scary glow of orange and red leaving destruction and possibility
512	Lizard	Lizard sunning on rock survival amid tough times
513	Shade Tree	it is a shade tree too in winter bare branches dark trunk long shadows
514	Cactus Flower	Cactus Flower Beauty amid needle thorns soon will be dark, sweet fruit
515	Canoe / Kayak	Sea Kayak riding surf like horseback beach safety
516	Moss	Thick Green Maiden Moss Northern Memories of where my Mother lived
517	Perseids	Perseid Flying Stars Flash quick and Bright How is it every year I never see you?
518	Floating Lantern	Floating Lantern hold grief Float my Love to the other world
519	Shade Tree	Big Cherry Shade Tree I Long for springfruit to make pie and gobble raw
520	Cross Breeze	Cross Breeze -Saving Grace chase away stale air Relief and tiny joy
521	Cross Breeze	cross breeze the curtains jump out and settle again Vermont afternoon

522	Wildfire	Wildfire nights Dense smoke canopies above Dreams of wet kisses
523	Shade Tree	Kilimanjaro Seen from a blasted shade tree Book cover only
524	Lizard	Drawing down the sun A lizard's heart arriving Cold mind gone to ground
525	Moss	A psychic won't say The verge will cradle your head Or that there'll be moss.
526	Floating Lantern	a floating lantern mosquito are you also a new grandfather
527	Floating Lantern	lighting the darkness floating lanterns move slowly around twists and turns
528	Perseids	"Dad"  You'll never return, unlike the Perseids show; I'm missing you both.
529	Moss	summer hiatus -- undulating emerald moss cushions my bare feet
530	Perseids	That summer we watched the Perseids meteors sleeping beneath stars.
531	Canoe / Kayak	around the oxbow great blue herons feed their young canoes drift downstream
532	Canoe / Kayak	three owls on a cliff watch each passing canoe a dozen heads turn
533	Shade Tree	not that I am old just resting from the long climb under the shade tree
534	Moss	herds of moss balls roll right through the anthropocene confounding science
535	Moss	unsurprisingly moss is not as comfy as your haiku suggests
536	Moss	wax as poetic as you like, soft green moss has twigs and bugs in it
537	Wildfire	Wildfire rips western forests black and blue: Eastern sunsets howl
538	Wildfire	wildfire season comes smoke descends not from heaven i fill my car with gas
539	Floating Lantern	Empty nest sits where crows hunted robins: oh, oh! floating lanterns fade

540	Wildfire	Wildfire season now High mountain lake refugee Vacationers flee
541	Cactus Flower	Summer crickets sing: remember scent of night flowering cactus
542	Cross Breeze	gentle cross breezes yellow punctuates the sky notes rise into flight
543	Lizard	Stop, foolish child! The lizard's tail squirms now, without a body
544	Perseids	Some claim Perseids streaked through the sky—but I don't believe in stars
545	Wildfire	Wildfire rips western forests black and blue: Eastern sunsets' howl
546	Perseids	vastness of Space time/Stirrings Universal Mind/Perseids Way of Light
547	Wildfire	Long ago, far away some say you could still see stars— before the wildfires
548	Shade Tree	Stopped under shade trees deep-south exit, windows down: rain frog symphony!
549	Cactus Flower	Summer crickets sing: Remember, nighttime fragrance! flowering cactus
550	Moss	dawn lights the deep old moss on spangled river banks your footprints erased
551	Lizard	Foolish child, why? The lizards tail squirms- now screams- from a detached mouth
552	Shade Tree	peregrine falcon perched high in the old shade tree dove feathers float past
553	Canoe / Kayak	around the oxbow great blue herons feed their young canoes drift downstream
554	Cross Breeze	a morning cross breeze russet and black oriole plucks green catkins
555	Lizard	gila monster—a lizard in drag with which you do not ever mess
556	Lizard	we got yr spiny gecko whiptail zebra-tailed earless and skink lizards
557	Lizard	yet again the porch lizard handily flouts the optimistic dog
558	Cactus Flower	a cactus flower survives because of the thorns— not in spite of them

559	Cactus Flower	surprisingly lush this desert tangle of thorns cactus flower heart
560	Perseids	your heart and mine are dancing with the Perseids— mere body is left
561	Canoe / Kayak	legs stuffed in kayak she could be a mermaid but for the life jacket
562	Cross Breeze	No AC at home Cross breeze at 5am makes Today a good day
563	Shade Tree	Mesquite's tiny leaves Makes a good shade tree, birds know Thanks for the hint, friend
564	Canoe / Kayak	surface mermaid wears her kayak so gracefully even the loons bow
565	Perseids	Climbed Cascades ridge For lame Perseid show, then... Green arcs fill the sky!
566	Canoe / Kayak	you can't canoe?" you can't be sure until you do so do canoe, oh do
567	Moss	Heat fills desert wash I'm not expecting kindness Hiding under stones... Moss!
568	Canoe / Kayak	Orange Osage ribs Protect rickety canoe From alligators!
569	Canoe / Kayak	going forward is not always progress—except when in a canoe
570	Lizard	Boy tortures lizards... As they bask in Tucson sun. Still paying for that.
571	Wildfire	Old Growth profits now... Become wildfires tomorrow. We all pay...do we?
572	Wildfire	wildfire, red in tooth and claw, pyrrhic victory over human greed
573	Wildfire	Wildfire of August Smoke filled sky hiding the sun No shadow at noon
574	Shade Tree	Shade tree dressed in green Each tiny new bud adds life Exploding flowers
575	Shade Tree	Beneath a shade tree Bird feeder sways back and forth No seeds left for him
576	Cross Breeze	A sudden cross breeze Each blade of grass surrenders Dandelions scatter

577	Cross Breeze	Sun breaks through the clouds. Now warm. I open windows. At last! My cross-breeze.
578	Wildfire	Above the street, the Salmon sky hangs low. Ash of Wildfire on my tongue.
579	Canoe / Kayak	Canoe passes beach Making fresh circular sounds No one is surprised
580	Canoe / Kayak	Sitting on water in nothing but my kayak completely at ease.
581	Wildfire	Far away wildfires Paint Midwestern sunsets Blue mist fades to red
582	Lizard	A bony lizard, Basking on a sunny rock Winter woes be gone
583	Cactus Flower	White cactus flower, My miraculous treatment I'll see seventy
584	Shade Tree	Bare oaks dancing in Long blue shadows at midday Morph to parasols
585	Cactus Flower	Paradoxical are Magenta ocotillos Beauty and danger
586	Moss	marigolds and moss on old stone steps family patterns still in me
587	Shade Tree	summer hiking trail through dusty grass and shade trees suddenly the sea
588	Cross Breeze	it's cold in Brazil the Minnesota's cross breeze follows in my chest
589	Moss	Moss everywhere, even underneath the cat who purrs and looks straight at me.
590	Shade Tree	The shade tree is there. Its shade moves throughout the day. Now here and now there.
591	Moss	Cloud-drops on mountain Moss covers the Juniper Ancient abiding
592	Floating Lantern	floating lanterns hold our enormous grief and love both evanescent
593	Cross Breeze	The windows let in / a cross breeze so refreshing. / The windows are closed.
594	Lizard	heat shimmers mariag just like a lizard I sleep remembering snow

595	Lizard	Monster cricket Sits, eating the silence, fright, hung in the night
596	Lizard	heat shimmers mariag just like a lizard I sleep remembering snow
597	Lizard	(mistyped first submission...supposed to be "cool mind" :)  Drawing down the sun A lizard's heart arriving Cool mind gone to ground
598	Cross Breeze	grandma's hot kitchen untouched by any cross breeze eating fresh doughnuts
599	Cross Breeze	A cross breeze is blowing Avalokiteshvara Whispers words of truth
600	Cross Breeze	A cross breeze is blowing Avalokiteshvara Whispering kindness  Moss—if it's Spanish Hangs long from trees in Charleston Shading the pathway  Turkey is quite hot A shade tree is often where Turks squat, sipping tea
601	Shade Tree	our children's children— will they see shade trees only in their picture books?
602	Floating Lantern	Chinees Floating Lantern Source Of Pollution There Is No Planet-B
603	Cactus Flower	no zen poet i nor gardener, though i strive cactus flower blooms
604	Floating Lantern	Going back to bed. Feeling the weight of the world. Floating lantern sunk
605	Floating Lantern	Bitter memories 76 years ago A floating lantern
606	Wildfire	Wildfire Shooting Flames Biblical Catastrophe Water Bombing Evia Island
607	Cross Breeze	what a soft cross breeze the fresh loaf leaves the oven a warmed heart to go
608	Wildfire	Inferno Wildfire Hell On Earth Building Back Carbon Takes Time
609	Wildfire	Yellow sky today Wildfires in California Ruined the sunset.
610	Cross Breeze	Two Windows Across Open Cross Breeze Sweet Dreams No Virus In The Bedroom
611	Moss	walking on asphalt dead frog upturned in the road live frog calls from moss

612	Shade Tree	Grandfather shade tree From mechanics to Buddha Relief from the sun.
613	Lizard	Slithering snake hides shall it shed its skin alone next to hole in sand  Baby hummingbirds life undergoing changes impermanence flies  White cranes spread their wings Dark blue descends on darkness Fluttering night sky
614	Perseids	"There's one!" she pointed. Gone before I turned my head Perseids moment.
615	Shade Tree	Vanishing shade tree Only the darkness suffering The reigning silence
616	Cross Breeze	Word surgery Brevity muscle less is more  Visceral pain Right hemicolectomy Colon weeps  Alone together Together alone cell phone be gone  Soul friend, bed friend Provider, lover Where are you?  Tires crunch on Packed gravel Headwind. Free.  Peacock in a cowboy hat Loves the subjunctive And me
617	Floating Lantern	Solace in deep sleep Floating lantern comes in dream sparkle in my eyes
618	Floating Lantern	White cranes spread their wings Dark blue floating lantern sings Fluttering night sky
619	Canoe / Kayak	A canoe at night Becomes water or darkness Don't drop the paddle.
620	Floating Lantern	humid twilight – so few floating lanterns without fireflies
621	Floating Lantern	late summer dusk – no more fireflies floating lanterns all down stream

622	Cross Breeze	windows open for cross breeze, artist across the way paints this moment 623
624	Wildfire	Wildfire tears A whisper under your breath Becoming anew
625	Cross Breeze	Her journey begins Invisible to all seen Only known by touch
626	Cross Breeze	(free haiku)  fuchsia crape myrtles maroon Japanese maples gifts from my window
627	Canoe / Kayak	That old canoe rests Remembers all the fun had When children were young
628	Cross Breeze	(free haiku)  snow fell in april evoking native groans and my wide-eyed wonder
629	Lizard	This lizard's blue tail Flashing neon hides your brown I see you just so
630	Canoe / Kayak	Waves pull the canoe backward, the shore beckons me a hand reaches out
631	Canoe / Kayak	Unlike life journeys Currents bring canoes ahead More gently than time
632	Shade Tree	Shade trees nod in unison To a songbird's soliloquy Horizon flashes green
633	Canoe / Kayak	When creek turns to flush - from climate change summer rain - my canoe saves lives
634	Cactus Flower	Cactus flowers bloom insects burrow deep inside honey lives within 635	Wildfire	Wildfire clouds, dark burning dreams, fill the summer sky, time now to plant some new ones.
636	Canoe / Kayak	Creek turns to flush! Climate, exhausted, goes wild - my canoe: come in!
637	Wildfire	A bare wildfire sky Fills with stellar spirit orbs Eyes can only glimpse
638	Shade Tree	redwood shade tree grove shines light on my lonely heart together again
639	Cross Breeze	Colorful prayer flags And the soothing ocean breeze What a calm summer!
640	Lizard	Shy anole lizard raises its red flag due east as the sun rises

641	Wildfire	Cedar Snake and Bird    first smell then hear the crackle    they run for their lives
642	Moss	As the rain falls down, thick green moss grows in my mind causing me to sneeze
643	Shade Tree	Like a dying woman in dark woods The red-tailed hawk screams danger But we are not listening
644	Cactus Flower	Summer's bloom is spent A petal drops drifts to rest empty present bloom
645	Wildfire	The wildfires consume everything in Life's pathway as I sit and cry
646	Shade Tree	Shade tree taking root a differing light is shed in morning stillness
647	Wildfire	wildfire flames high as drought creek waters low. extreme human give and greed
648	Cross Breeze	A cross breeze cools hot faces, blows the virus out the open window
649	Floating Lantern	Floating Lanterns rise at Hangzhou's Moon Festival Eat moon cakes galore
650	Wildfire	As the forest burns, wildfires burn my heart ash falls from my eyes
651	Shade Tree	The shade tree crumbles deserting the birds and bugs leaving my face burnt
652	Moss	Beside lotus pools fingers caress moistened moss Red wildfires raging
653	Cross Breeze	Passing between walls This dog-run house built for me Two winds meeting here
654	Wildfire	I smell the fire A neighbor's home or the earth Is there a difference?
655	Perseids	red red red dresses missing and murdered women stars fallen from sky
656	Cactus Flower	In the summer storm, The cactus flower bloated- Too much rainwater
657	Canoe / Kayak	The sea lion barks as my kayak cuts through waves - the Pacific laughs
658	Floating Lantern	The global winds smile as the floating lanterns glow in the people's hearts
659	Wildfire	wildfire abating mountain tops reappearing a breeze from clear skies

660	Shade Tree	My green hammock Swinging under three spruce trees What a sweet blessing!
661	Wildfire	Wildfire raging oh high time for us to light the fire of love
662	Wildfire	cast of amber light over dry crisp redwood needles the fickle wind blows
663	Canoe / Kayak	Canoes meander passed the heart of the river as my Soul flows deep
664	Moss	the birds fall silent like flowers falling on moss at morning prayer
665	Shade Tree	beneath the shade tree the village cows gathering for sunday dinner
666	Shade Tree	sidewalk talk floating into an open window above a shade tree
667	Shade Tree	Dawn-- first light of summer catch maple on fire
668	Cactus Flower	Orange cactus flower Blooms in the dry desert heat Nature's miracle
669	Shade Tree	windchime so still it imagines being a branch
670	Perseids	year after year, stay up for a glimpse of perseids from city rooftop
671	Wildfire	you are my wildfire a morning kiss like lightning an evening embrace
672	Wildfire	when you are freezing turn your gaze to the wildfire tears flow either way
673	Wildfire	an ember glows bright warms the woman's hands and heart wildfire containment
674	Canoe / Kayak	Paddling the Hudson Struggling and exuberant Bald Eagle sighted
675	Lizard	Lizard lifts one leg, Then the other, and the next Dancing in the heat.
676	Wildfire	the clear clean morning gave way to wildfires raging lemon yellow air
677	Cross Breeze	Summer / Smokes / Have Returned
678	Wildfire	one Black-eyed Susan remains after a wildfire dancing till the end

679	Cactus Flower	Summer Brilliance Cosmos
680	Wildfire	at the end of the road people run from the wildfire they lit by mistake
681	Shade Tree	Brilliant Sun Reflection Fat Summer Leaves
682	Cactus Flower	Darting Brilliance Hummingbird Fierce Protector
683	Shade Tree	the shade tree refuge for you and me and rapture branches keep secrets
684	Cross Breeze	Dusty Boughs Shimmering Summer Breeze
685	Shade Tree	Vital Matters Clarify Autumn
686	Shade Tree	under the shade tree gnats, black flies and mosquitos waited for our flesh
687	Shade Tree	My Life Force Itself Dwindling Ever Faster During My Autumn Years
688	Shade Tree	where we placed our chairs buddha head beneath shade trees pray no wildfires
689	Wildfire	Wildfires burn hearts
690	Wildfire	Summer Wildfire dragon flies Takes everything— now Thrown into non-attachment
691	Wildfire	wildfires are raging cremating ecosystems tears extinguish grief
692	Wildfire	No words for this grief/ dissertation in wildfire/ library of ash [Note: this was written after seeing the library in Greenville CA -- where I filed a copy of my dissertation about conflicts over forest management -- burnt to the ground,
693	Wildfire	Smoke drifting through air illusion appears opaque unable to see  Beloved blue sky my bearings are lost to you clear blue sky find me
694	Cross Breeze	Acceleration Convertible ride — cross breeze Exhilaration
695	Wildfire	As wildfire rages Outside my bedroom window I study haiku
696	Wildfire	kids in the garden you showed me those em'rald thighs baked zucchini bread

		Mrs. Bumblebee hasn't the clover sufficed the dog days are here
697	Cross Breeze	(the chicken admires response)
698	Canoe / Kayak	in thin blue kayak / you float a waveless sea, time / timeless with whalesong.
699	Moss	bare toes on wet ground / aches of miles swept away / by generous moss.
700	Moss	this moss shining bright / requests of my aching feet / to take off these boots.
701	Canoe / Kayak	thin and light, kayak-- / thick and heavy, humpback whale-- / yet they meet, joyful.
702	Perseids	when perseids dance / you want to lie on your back / and take a spin, too.
		Moss
703	Moss	Forest's woven rug Older than human sorrow Softens the nut's fall