Therefore, shun death, is my advice.

True, I myself, Sir, though I scold

The cowardly, by no means come

Under reproof as overbold

Cut up alive to guess what suits

My case and saves my toe from shoots.

Down by the Salley Gardens

my love and I did meet;

with little snow-white feet.

She bid me take love easy,

as the leaves grow on the tree;

But I, being young and foolish,

with her would not agree.

In a field by the river
my love and I did stand,
And on my leaning shoulder
she laid her snow-white hand.

She bid me take life easy,
as the grass grows on the weirs;
But I was young and foolish,
and now am full of tears.

W.B. Yeats

2. Transcribe the following popular Irish song into IPA, scored for voice and chamber orchestra:

When Irish Eyes are Smiling

There's a tear in your eye,
And I'm wondering why,
For it never should be there at all.

With such pow'r in your smile,
Sure a stone you'd beguile,

So there's never a teardrop should fall.

When your sweet lilting laughter's

Like some fairy song,

And your eyes twinkle bright as can be;

You should laugh all the while

And all other times smile,

And now, smile a smile for me.

When Irish eyes are smiling,

Sure, 'tis like the morn in Spring.

In the lilt of Irish laughter

You can hear the angels sing.

When Irish hearts are happy,

All the world seems bright and gay.

And when Irish eyes are smiling,

Sure, they steal your heart away.

For your smile is a part
Of the love in your heart,
And it makes even sunshine more bright.
Like the linnet's sweet song,
Crooning all the day long,
Comes your laughter and light.
For the springtime of life
Is the sweetest of all
There is ne'er a real care or regret;
And while springtime is ours
Throughout all of youth's hours,
Let us smile each chance we get.

Chauncey Olcott/George Graff, Jr.

to memory now I cannot recall.

So fill me to the parting glass.

Goodnight and joy be with you all.

Of all the comrades that ere I had,

they're sorry for my going away,

And of all the sweethearts that ere I had,

they wish me one more day to stay,

But since it falls unto my lot that I should rise while you should not,

I will gently rise and I'll softly call,

“Goodnight and joy be with you all!”

Oh, if I had money enough to spend and leisure time to sit awhile

There is a fair maid in this town

that sorely has my heart beguiled

Her rosy cheeks and ruby lips,

she alone has my heart in thrall.

So fill me to the parting glass.

Goodnight and joy be with you all.

2. Transcribe the following American folk song into IPA, scored for voice and orchestra.

Oh, Shenandoah,

I long to see you,

Away you rolling river.

Oh Shenandoah,
I long to see you,
Away, I'm bound away,
'cross the wide Missouri.

Oh Shenandoah,
I love your daughter,
Away, you rolling river.
For her I'd cross,
Your roaming waters,
Away, I'm bound away,
'Cross the wide Missouri.

'Tis seven years,
since last I've seen you,
And hear your rolling river.
'Tis seven years,

since last I've seen you,

Away, we're bound away,

Across the wide Missouri.

Assignment no.2: Use of R according to texture and genre

1. Transcribe the following Welsh folk song into IPA, scored for voice and string quartet.

The Ash Grove

Down yonder green valley, where streamlets meander,

When twilight is fading I pensively rove

Or at the bright noontide in solitude wander,

Amid the dark shades of the lonely ash grove;

‘Twas there, while the blackbird was joyfully singing,

I first met my dear one, the joy of my heart!

Around us for gladness the bluebells were ringing,

Ah! then little thought I how soon we should part.

Still glows the bright sunshine o'er valley and mountain,

Still warbles the blackbird its note from the tree;

Still trembles the moonbeam on streamlet and fountain,

But what are the beauties of nature to me?

With sorrow, deep sorrow, my bosom is laden,
All day I go mourning in search of my love;
Ye echoes, oh, tell me, where is the sweet maiden?
“She sleeps, ‘neath the green turf down by the ash grove.”

Thomas Oliphant

2. Transcribe the following traditional Christian hymn into IPA, scored for voice and piano

Shall we gather at the river, where bright angel feet have trod,
with its crystal tide forever
flowing by the throne of God?

Yes, we'll gather at the river,
the beautiful, the beautiful river;
gather with the saints at the river
that flows by the throne of God.

On the margin of the river,
washing up its silver spray,
we will walk and worship ever,
all the happy golden day.

Ere we reach the shining river,
lay we every burden down;
grace our spirits will deliver,
and provide a robe and crown.

Soon we'll reach the shining river,
soon our pilgrimage will cease;
soon our happy hearts will quiver
with the melody of peace.

Robert Lowry

Assignment no.1: IPA transcription of poem

High waving heather 'neath stormy blasts bending,

Midnight and moonlight and bright shining stars,

Darkness and glory rejoicingly blending,

Earth rising to heaven and heaven descending,

Man's spirit away from its drear dungeon sending,

Bursting the fetters and breaking the bars.

All down the mountain sides wild forests lending

One mighty voice to the life-giving wind,

Rivers their banks in their jubilee rending,

Fast through the valleys a reckless course wending,

Wider and deeper their waters extending,

Leaving a desolate desert behind.

Shining and lowering and swelling and dying,

Changing forever from midnight to noon;

Roaring like thunder, like soft music sighing,
Shadows on shadows advancing and flying,
Lightning-bright flashes the deep gloom defying,
Coming as swiftly and fading as soon.

Emily Brontë

Assignment no.2: IPA transcription of poem

Change Upon Change

Five months ago the stream did flow,

The lilies bloomed within the sedge,

And we were lingering to and fro,

Where none will track thee in this snow,

Along the stream, beside the hedge.

Ah, Sweet, be free to love and go!

For if I do not hear thy foot,

The frozen river is as mute,

The flowers have dried down to the root:

And why, since these be changed since May,

Shouldst thou change less than they.

And slow, slow as the winter snow

The tears have drifted to mine eyes;

And my poor cheeks, five months ago

Set blushing at thy praises so,

Put paleness on for a disguise.

Ah, Sweet, be free to praise and go!

For if my face is turned too pale,

It was thine oath that first did fail,

It was thy love proved false and frail,

And why, since these be changed enow,

Should I change less than thou.

Elizabeth Barrett Browning

Assignment no.3: IPA transcription of poem

Love And Harmony

Love and harmony combine,

And round our souls entwine

While thy branches mix with mine,

And our roots together join.

Joys upon our branches sit,

Chirping loud and singing sweet;

Like gentle streams beneath our feet

Innocence and virtue meet.

Thou the golden fruit dost bear,

I am clad in flowers fair;

Thy sweet boughs perfume the air,

And the turtle buildeth there.

There she sits and feeds her young,

Sweet I hear her mournful song;

And thy lovely leaves among,

There is love, I hear his tongue.

There his charming nest doth lay,

There he sleeps the night away;

There he sports along the day,

And doth among our branches play.

William Blake

Assignment no.4: IPA transcription of poem

My November Guest

My Sorrow, when she's here with me,

Thinks these dark days of autumn rain

Are beautiful as days can be;

She loves the bare, the withered tree;

She walks the sodden pasture lane.

Her pleasure will not let me stay.

She talks and I am fain to list:

She's glad the birds are gone away,

She's glad her simple worsted grady

Is silver now with clinging mist.

The desolate, deserted trees,

The faded earth, the heavy sky,

The beauties she so wryly sees,

She thinks I have no eye for these,

And vexes me for reason why.

Not yesterday I learned to know

The love of bare November days

Before the coming of the snow,

But it were vain to tell he so,

And they are better for her praise.

Robert Frost

Assignment no.1: Diction choices according to style and genre

1. Transcribe the following text into IPA taken from Gilbert & Sullivan's H.M.S. Pinafore, scored for voice and orchestra.

When I was a lad I served a term

As office boy to an Attorney's firm.

I cleaned the windows and I swept the floor,

And I polished up the handle of the big front door.

I polished up that handle so carefully

That now I am the Ruler of the Queen's Navy!

As office boy I made such a mark

That they gave me the post of a junior clerk.

I served the writs with a smile so bland,

And I copied all the letters in a big round hand.

I copied all the letters in a hand so free,

That now I am the Ruler of the Queen's Navy!

In serving writs I made such a name

That an articled clerk I soon became;

I wore clean collars and a brand-new suit

For the pass examination at the Institute.

That pass examination did so well for me,

That now I am the Ruler of the Queen's Navy!

Of legal knowledge I acquired such a grip

That they took me into the partnership.

And that junior partnership, I ween,

Was the only ship that I ever had seen.

But that kind of ship so suited me,

That now I am the Ruler of the Queen's Navy!

I grew so rich that I was sent

By a pocket borough into Parliament.

I always voted at my party's call,

And I never thought of thinking for myself at all.

I thought so little, they rewarded me

By making me the Ruler of the Queen's Navy!

Now landsmen all, whoever you may be,

If you want to rise to the top of the tree,

If your soul isn't fettered to an office stool,

Be careful to be guided by this golden rule.

Stick close to your desks and never go to sea,

And you all may be rulers of the Queen's Navy!

Arthur Sullivan

2. Transcribe the following text into IPA, scored for voice and orchestra in a contemporary musical theatre production

The House of the Rising Sun

There is a house in New Orleans

They call the Rising Sun

And it's been the ruin of many a poor boy

And God I know I'm one.

My mother was a tailor

She sewed my new blue jeans.

My father was a gamblin' man

Down in New Orleans.

Now the only thing a gambler needs

Is a suitcase and trunk

And the only time he's satisfied

Is when he's on a drunk.

Oh mother tell your children

Not to do what I have done.

Spend your lives in sin and misery

In the House of the Rising Sun.

Well, I got one foot on the platform

The other foot on the train.

I'm goin' back to New Orleans

To wear that ball and chain.

Well, there is a house in New Orleans

They call the Rising Sun

And it's been the ruin of many a poor boy

And God I know I'm one.

Assignment no.2: Diction choices according to style and genre

1. Transcribe the following popular song into IPA, scored for voice and orchestra in a musical theatre revue.

Anytime you're feeling lonely

Anytime you're feeling blue

Anytime you feel down hearted

That will prove your love for me is true.

Anytime you're thinking 'bout me

That's the time I'll think of you

Anytime you say you want me back again

That's the time I'll come back home to you.

Anytime your world is lonely

And you'll find true friends a few

Anytime you see a rainbow

That will be a sign the storm is through.

Anytime will be the right time

Anytime at all will do

Anytime you're sure you want only my love

That's the time I'll come back home to you.

Herbert Lawson

2. Transcribe the following recitative and aria into IPA, taken from Gilbert & Sullivan's H.M.S. Pinafore and scored for voice and orchestra.

The hours creep on apace,

My guilty heart is quaking!

Oh, that I might retrace

The step that I am taking!

Its folly it were easy to be showing,

What I am giving up and whither going.

On the one hand, papa's luxurious home,

Hung with ancestral armour and old brasses,

Carved oak and tapestry from distant Rome,

Rare "blue and white" Venetian finger-glasses,

Rich oriental rugs, luxurious sofa pillows,

And everything that isn't old, from Gillow's.

And on the other, a dark and dingy room,

In some back street with stuffy children crying,

Where organs yell, and clacking housewives fume,

And clothes are hanging out all day a-drying.

With one cracked looking-glass to see your face in,

And dinner served up in a pudding basin!

A simple sailor, lowly born,

Unlettered and unknown,

Who toils for bread from early morn

Till half the night has flown,

Till half the night has flown!

No golden rank can he impart,

No wealth of house or land,

No fortune, save his trusty heart,
And honest, brown right hand,
His trusty heart, and brown right hand!

And yet he is so wondrous fair,
That love for one so passing rare,
So peerless in his manly beauty,
Were little else than solemn duty,
Were little else than solemn duty!

Oh, god of love, and god of reason, say,
Which of you twain shall my poor heart obey!

Arthur Sullivan

Sample Tests: English

Quiz no.1: Diction choices according to style and genre

1. Transcribe the following poem into IPA. This poem is set for voice and piano and has an Irish poet.

When night brings the hour

Of starlight and joy,

There comes to my bower

A fairy-winged boy;

With eyes so bright,

So full of wild arts,

Like nets of light,

To tangle young hearts;

With lips, in whose keeping

Love's secret may dwell,

Like Zephyr asleep in

Some rosy sea-shell.

Guess who he is,

Name but his name,

And his best kiss

For reward you may claim.

Where'er o'er the ground

He prints his light feet.

The flowers there are found

Most shining and sweet:

His looks, as soft

As lightning in May,

Tho' dangerous oft,

Ne'er wound but in play:

And oh, when his wings

Have brushed o'er my lyre,

You'd fancy its strings

Were turning to fire.

Guess who he is,

Name but his name,
And his best kiss
For reward you may claim.

Thomas Moore

2. Transcribe the following text into IPA. It is scored for voice and orchestra for a performance of musical theatre and popular song.

Oh my darling, oh my darling,

Oh my darling, Clementine!

You are lost and gone forever

Dreadful sorry, Clementine

In a cavern, in a canyon,

Excavating for a mine

Dwelt a miner, forty-niner,

And his daughter, Clementine.

Light she was and like a fairy,

And her shoes were number nine

Herring boxes, without topses,

Sandals were for Clementine.

Drove she ducklings to the water

Ev'ry morning just at nine,

Hit her foot against a splinter,

Fell into the foaming brine.

Ruby lips above the water,

Blowing bubbles, soft and fine,

But, alas, I was no swimmer,

So I lost my Clementine.

How I missed her! How I missed her,

How I missed my Clementine,

But I kissed her little sister,

I forgot my Clementine.

Quiz no.2: Diction choices according to style and genre

1. Transcribe the following poem into IPA. It is set for voice and piano and the poet is American.

Two roads diverged in a yellow wood,

And sorry I could not travel both

And be one traveler, long I stood

And looked down one as far as I could

To where it bent in the undergrowth;

Then took the other, as just as fair,

And having perhaps the better claim,

Because it was grassy and wanted wear;

Though as for that the passing there

Had worn them really about the same,

And both that morning equally lay

In leaves no step had trodden black.

Oh, I kept the first for another day!

Yet knowing how way leads on to way,

I doubted if I should ever come back.

I shall be telling this with a sigh

Somewhere ages and ages hence:

Two roads diverged in a wood, and I—

I took the one less traveled by,

And that has made all the difference.

Robert Frost

2. Transcribe the following poem into IPA. It is set for voice and chamber orchestra and the poet is British.

I was angry with my friend:

I told my wrath, my wrath did end.

I was angry with my foe:

I told it not, my wrath did grow.

And I water'd it in fears,

Night & morning with my tears;

And I sunned it with smiles,

And with soft deceitful wiles.

And it grew both day and night,

Till it bore an apple bright.

And my foe beheld it shine,

And he knew that it was mine.

And into my garden stole

When the night had veil'd the pole,

In the morning glad I see

My foe outstretch'd beneath the tree.

William Blake

Quiz no.3: Diction choices according to style and genre

1. Transcribe the following popular song into IPA. It is scored for voice and orchestra for an evening of musical theatre and spirituals.

I am a poor wayfaring stranger,
While traveling through this world of woe;
Yet there's no sickness, toil or danger
in that bright world to which I go.

I'm going there to see my father,
I'm going there no more to roam;
I'm only going over Jordan,
I'm only going over home.

Though dark clouds will gather round me -
I know my way is rough and steep -
Yet beauteous fields lie just before me,
Where God's redeemed their vigils keep.

I'm going there to see my mother:

She said she'd meet me when I come;

I'm only going over Jordan,

I'm only going over home.

2. Transcribe the following poem into IPA. It is set for voice and piano and the poet is Irish.

'Tis the last rose of summer,

All her lovely companions

Are faded and gone;

No flower of her kindred,

No rosebud is nigh,

To reflect back her blushes,

Or give sigh for sigh.

I'll not leave thee, thou lone one!

To pine on the stem;

Since the lovely are sleeping,

Go, sleep thou with them.

Thus kindly I scatter,

Thy leaves o'er the bed,

Where thy mates of the garden

Lie scentless and dead.

So soon may I follow,

When friendships decay,

And from Love's shining circle

The gems drop away.

When true hearts lie withered,

And fond ones are flown,

Oh! who would inhabit

This bleak world alone?

Thomas Moore

Hat zwischen mich und dich gestellt;

Dem Neid der Schicksalmächte zum Verdrusse

Wie du mir je im schönsten Lenz der Liebe

Mit Gruß und Kuß entgegenkamst,

Mit meiner Seele glühendstem Ergusse,

Sei mir gegrüßt, sei mir geküßt!

Ein Hauch der Liebe tilget Raum und Zeiten,

Ich bin bei dir, du bist bei mir,

Ich halte dich in dieses Arms Umschlusse,

Sei mir gegrüßt, sei mir geküßt!

Sample Tests: German

Quiz no.1: Diction choices according to texture

1. Transcribe the following poem into IPA, scored for voice and piano.

So hab ich wirklich dich verloren?

Bist du, o Schöne, mir entflohn?

Noch klingt in den gewohnten Ohren

Ein jedes Wort, ein jeder Ton.

So wie des Wandlers Blick am Morgen

Vergebens in die Lüfte dringt,

Wenn, in dem blauen Raum verborgen,

Hoch über ihm die Lerche singt:

So dringet ängstlich hin und wieder

Durch Feld und Busch und Wald mein Blick;

Dich rufen alle meine Lieder;

O komm, Geliebte, mir zurück.

Johann Wolfgang von Goethe

So have I truly lost you?
Have you, o fair one, fled from me?
Yet still I can hear in my accustomed ears
Every word, every tone of your voice.

Just as the wanderer's gaze in the morning
Searchingly pierces the heavens in vain
When, concealed in the blue expanse
High above, the lark sings to him:

So does my gaze anxiously search here and there,
Through field and bush and forest,
Singing to you through all my songs,
O come, my darling, back to me!

2. Transcribe the following aria into IPA. It is scored for voice and orchestra and is taken from Mozart's Die Zauberflöte.

Dies Bildnis ist bezaubernd schön,

wie noch kein Auge je gesehn.

Ich fühl' es, wie dies Götterbild mein Herz mit neuer Regung füllt.

Dies Etwas kann ich zwar nicht nennen,

doch fühl' ich's hier wie Feuer brennen;

soll die Empfindung Liebe sein?

Ja, ja, die Liebe ist's allein.

O wenn ich sie nur finden könnte!

O wenn sie doch schon vor mir stünde!

ich würde, würde, warm und rein –

Was würde ich? Ich würde sie voll Entzücken an diesen heißen Busen drücken, und ewig wäre sie dann mein.

Emanuel Schikaneder

This image is enchantingly lovely,
Like no eye has ever beheld!

I feel it as this divine picture,
Fills my heart with new emotion.

I cannot name my feeling,
Though I feel it burn like fire within me,
Could this feeling be love?
Yes! Yes! It is love alone.

Oh, if only I could find her,
If only she were standing before me,
I would, I would, with warmth and honor ...

What would I do? Full of rapture,
I would press her to this glowing bosom,
And then she would be mine forever!

Quiz no.2: Diction choices according to texture

1. Transcribe the following aria into IPA. It is scored for voice and orchestra and is taken from Mendelssohn's Elias, op.70.

Höre, Israel, höre des Herren Stimme!

Ach, dass du merkest auf sein Gebot!

Aber wer glaubt unserer Predigt,

und wem wird der Arm des Herrn geoffenbart?

So spricht der Herr, der Erlöser Israels,

sein Heiliger, zum Knecht, der unter den Tyrannen ist,

so spricht der Herr:

Ich bin euer Tröster.

Weiche nicht, denn ich bin dein Gott!

Ich stärke dich!

Wer bist du denn, dass du dich vor Menschen fürchtest, die doch sterben? Und vergisst des Herrn,

der dich gemacht hat, der den Himmel ausbreitet

und die Erde gegründet.

Wer bist du denn?

Ich bin euer Tröster.

Weiche nicht, denn ich bin dein Gott!

Ich stärke dich!

Julius Schubring

Hear ye, Israel, hear what the Lord speaketh:
“Oh, hadst thou heeded my commandments!”
Who hath believed our report:
to whom is the arm of the Lord revealed?

Thus saith the Lord, the Redeemer of Israel,
and his Holy One to him
oppressed by tyrants,
thus saith the Lord:

“I am He that comforteth.
Be not afraid, for I am thy God!
I will strengthen thee!
Say, who art thou, that thou art afraid of a man that shall die; and forgettest the Lord,
thy Maker, who hath stretched forth the heavens,
and laid the earth’s foundations?
Say, who art thou!”

William Bartholomew

2. Transcribe the following poem into IPA. It is scored for voice and piano.

Und frische Nahrung, neues Blut

Saug ich aus freier Welt:

Wie ist Natur so hold und gut,

Die mich am Busen hält!

Die Welle wieget unsren Kahn

Im Rudertakt hinauf,

Und Berge, wolfig himmelan,

Begegnen unserm Lauf.

Aug, mein Aug, was sinkst du nieder?

Goldne Träume, kommt ihr wieder?

Weg, du Traum! so gold du bist:

Hier auch Lieb und Leben ist.

Auf der Welle blinken

Tausend schwebende Sterne,

Weiche Nebel trinken

Rings die türmende Ferne;

Morgenwind umflügelt

Die beschattete Bucht,

Und im See bespiegelt

Sich die reifende Frucht.

Johann Wolfgang von Goethe

And fresh sustenance, new blood
I soak up from the wide world;
How sweet and good is nature
Which holds me to her bosom!

The waves rock our little boat
In time with the oars,
And mountains, cloud-capped heavenwards,
Meet our circling course.

Eyes, my eyes, why are you cast down?
Golden dreams, do you come again?
Away, you dream, however golden;
Here too is love and life.

On the waves twinkle
A thousand hovering stars,
Soft mists swallow up
The surrounding towering distances;

Morning wind wings around
The shadowed bay,
And the lake mirrors
The ripening fruit.

Quiz no.3: Diction choices according to texture

1. Transcribe the following German folk song text into IPA. It is scored for voice and string quartet.

Es wohnet ein Fiedler zu Frankfurt am Main,

der kehret von lustiger Zeche heim;

und er trat auf den Markt, was schaut er dort?

Der schönen Frauen schmausten gar viel' an dem Ort.

“Du bucklichter Fiedler, nun fiedle uns auf,

wir wollen dir zahlen des Lohnes vollauf!

Einen feinen Tanz, behende gegeigt,

Walpurgis Nacht wir heuer gefeir’t!”

Der Geiger strich einen fröhlichen Tanz,

die Frauen tanzten den Rosenkranz,

und die erste sprach: “mein lieber Sohn,

du geigtest so frisch, hab’ nun deinen Lohn!”

Sie griff ihm behend' unter's Wams sofort, und nahm ihm den Höcker vom Rücken fort:
"so gehe nun hin, mein schlanker Gesell, dich nimmt nun jedwede Jungfrau zur Stell'."

Anonymous

There once lived a fiddler in Frankfurt-am-Main,
who was on his way home from a merry celebration;
he arrived at the market, and what did he see?
Fair women feasting - there were so many in that place.

"You! Hunchbacked fiddler, if you fiddle for us now
we will pay you a handsome reward!
Fiddle nimbly a fine dance,
for we celebrate Walpurgis Night tonight!"

The fiddler scratched out a vivacious dance,
and the ladies danced the Rose-Wreath¹,
and then the first one spoke: "My dear son,
you play so merrily - have now your reward!"

At once she grasped him agilely under his jerkin
and removed the hump from his back:
"Go forth now, my tall young man,
now any maiden would take you on the spot!"

Translation: Emily Ezust

2. Transcribe the following poem into IPA. It is set for voice and piano.

Am Waldsaum kann ich lange Nachmittle,
Dem Kuckuck horchend, in dem Grase liegen;
Er scheint das Tal gemächlich einzuwiegen
Im friedevollen Gleichklang seiner Klage.

Da ist mir wohl, und meine schlimmste Plage,
Den Fratzen der Gesellschaft mich zu fügen,
Hier wird sie mich doch endlich nicht bekriegen,
Wo ich auf eigne Weise mich behage.

Und wenn die feinen Leute nur erst dächten,
Wie schön Poeten ihre Zeit verschwenden,
Sie würden mich zuletzt noch gar beneiden.

Denn des Sonetts gedrängte Kränze flechten
Sich wie von selber unter meinen Händen,
Indes die Augen in der Ferne weiden.

Eduard Mörike

At the edge of the forest, listening to the cuckoo,
I can spend many a long afternoon lying in the grass.
The cuckoo seems to lull the valley to sleep
With the peaceful repetitiousness of his lament.

I feel well there, and my worst vexation,
That of conforming to the grotesque demands of society,
Finally cannot make war upon me there,
Where I enjoy myself in my own way.

And if those cultivated people only knew
How beautifully poets waste their time,
In the end they would be jealous of me.

For under my hands the sonnet's dense wreaths
Almost seem to weave themselves,
While my eyes feast on the scene in the distance.

Practice Exam no.1: English

PART I: IPA Transcription

Transcribe the following poem into IPA. It is scored for voice and orchestra and the poet is British.

All are architects of Fate,

Working in these walls of Time;

Some with massive deeds and great,

Some with ornaments of rhyme.

Nothing useless is, or low;

Each thing in its place is best;

And what seems but idle show

Strengthens and supports the rest.

For the structure that we raise,

Time is with materials filled;

Our to-days and yesterdays

Are the blocks with which we build.

Truly shape and fashion these;

Leave no yawning gaps between;

Think not, because no man sees,

Such things will remain unseen.

In the elder days of Art,

Builders wrought with greatest care

Each minute and unseen part;

For the Gods see everywhere.

Let us do our work as well,

Both the unseen and the seen;

Make the house, where Gods may dwell,

Beautiful, entire, and clean.

Else our lives are incomplete,

Standing in these walls of Time,

Broken stairways, where the feet
Stumble as they seek to climb.

Build to-day, then, strong and sure,
With a firm and ample base;
And ascending and secure
Shall to-morrow find its place.

Thus alone can we attain
To those turrets, where the eye
Sees the world as one vast plain,
And one boundless reach of sky.

Henry Wadsworth Longfellow

PART II: IPA transcription

Transcribe the following poem into IPA. It is scored for voice and orchestra and the poet is British.

Tell me, some pitying angel, quickly say,

Where does my soul's sweet darling stay,

In tiger's, or more cruel Herod's way?

Ah! rather let his little footsteps press

Unregarded through the wilderness,

Where milder savages resort:

The desert's safer than a tyrant's court.

Why, fairest object of my love,

Why dost thou from my longing eyes remove?

Was it a waking dream that did foretell

Thy wondrous birth? no vision from above?

Where's Gabriel now that visited my cell?

I call; he comes not; flatt'ring hopes, farewell.

Me Judah's daughters once caress'd,

Call'd me of mothers the most bless'd.

Now (fatal change!) of mothers most distress'd.

How shall my soul its motions guide?

How shall I stem the various tide,

Whilst faith and doubt my lab'ring soul divide?

For whilst of thy dear sight beguil'd,

I trust the God, but oh! I fear the child.

PART II: IPA Transcription

Transcribe the following poem into IPA. A translation has been provided.

Es war ein König in Thule,

Gar treu bis an das Grab,

Dem sterbend seine Buhle

Einen goldenen Becher gab.

Es ging ihm nichts darüber,

Er leert' ihn jeden Schmaus;

Die Augen gingen ihm über,

So oft er trank daraus.

Und als er kam zu sterben,

Zählt' er seine Städt' im Reich,

Gönnt' alles seinem Erben,

Den Becher nicht zugleich.

Er saß beim Königsmahle,

Die Ritter um ihn her,
Auf hohem Vätersaale,
Dort auf dem Schloß am Meer.

Dort stand der alte Zecher,
Trank letzte Lebensglut,
Und warf den heil'gen Becher
Hinunter in die Flut.

Er sah ihn stürzen, trinken
Und sinken tief ins Meer.
Die Augen täten ihm sinken
Trank nie einen Tropfen mehr.

Johann Wolfgang von Goethe

There once was a King of Thule, ever faithful to the grave,
to whom his dying beloved a golden goblet gave.

Nothing was more valuable to him:
he emptied it at every feast;
his eyes would overflow with tears
whenever he drank from it.

And as his time to die drew near,
he counted the cities within his realm and gladly bequeathed everything to his heir
- except for the goblet.

He sat at the royal banquet,
his knights all around him,
in the grand hall of his ancestors,
there in the castle by the sea.

There stood the old reveler,
took a final swig of life's fire,
and hurled the sacred goblet
into the water below.

He watched it plummet, fill up,
and sink deep into the sea.
His eyes then sank closed,
never to drink another drop.

PART I: IPA Transcription

Transcribe the following poem into IPA. A translation has been provided.

Allnächtlich im Traume seh' ich dich

Und sehe dich freundlich grüßen,

Und laut aufweinend stürz' ich mich

Zu deinen süßen Füßen.

Du siehst mich an wehmüdiglich

Und schüttelst das blonde Köpfchen;

Aus deinen Augen schleichen sich

Die Perlentränentröpfchen.

Du sagst mir heimlich ein leises Wort

Und gibst mir den Strauß von Zypressen.

Ich wache auf, und der Strauß ist fort,

Und das Wort hab' ich vergessen.

Heinrich Heine

Nightly I see you in my dreams
And I see you greet me, friendly,
And crying out loudly, I throw myself
At your sweet feet.

You look at me sorrowfully
And shake your dear, blond head;
From your eyes sneak forth
The pearly teardrops.

You say a soft word to me secretly,
And give me a branch of the cypress;
I awake, and the branch is gone,
And I have forgotten the word.

PART I: IPA Transcription

- Transcribe the following poem into IPA. This poem is set for voice and string quartet and has a British poet.

I'll come when thou art saddest

Laid alone in the darkened room;

When the mad day's mirth has vanished

And the smile of joy is banished

From evening's chilly gloom.

I'll come when the heart's real feeling

Has entire unbiased sway,

And my influence o'er thee stealing,

Grief deepening, joy congealing,

Shall bear thy soul away.

Listen, 'tis just the hour,

The awful time for thee;

Dost thou not feel upon thy soul

A flood of strange sensations roll,

Forerunners of a sterner power,

Heralds of me?

Emily Brontë

2. Transcribe the following poem into IPA. This poem is set for voice and piano. A translation has been provided.

Wohin so schnell, so kraus, so wild, mein lieber Bach?

Eilst du voll Zorn dem frechen Bruder Jäger nach?

Kehr um, kehr um, und schilt erst deine Müllerin

Für ihren leichten, losen, kleinen Flattersinn.

Sahst du sie gestern abend nicht am Tore stehn,

Mit langem Halse nach der großen Straße sehn?

Wenn von dem Fang der Jäger lustig zieht nach Haus,

Da steckt kein sittsam Kind den Kopf zum Fenster 'naus.

Geh, Bächlein, hin und sag ihr das; doch sag ihr nicht,

Hörst du, kein Wort von meinem traurigen Gesicht.

Sag ihr: Er schnitzt bei mir sich eine Pfeif aus Rohr

Und bläst den Kindern schöne Tänz' und Lieder vor.

Wilhelm Müller

To where are you going so quickly, so wild and ruffled, my dear brook?
Do you hurry full of anger for the arrogant hunter?
Turn around and scold first your miller maid,
For her light, loose, little flirtatious mind,

Didn't you see her standing at the gate last night,
Craning her neck toward the large street?
When the hunter returns gaily home from the catch,
No decent girl sticks her head out the window.

Go, brooklet, and tell her that; but tell her not,
Do you hear? - tell her no word of my sad face.
Tell her: he is carving a pipe of cane
And plays pretty dances and songs for the children.

PART II: IPA Transcription

1. Transcribe the following poem into IPA. This poem is set for voice and piano and the poet is American.

What lips my lips have kissed, and where, and why,

I have forgotten, and what arms have lain

Under my head till morning; but the rain

Is full of ghosts tonight, that tap and sigh

Upon the glass and listen for reply,

And in my heart there sits a quiet pain

For unremembered lads that not again

Will turn to me at midnight with a cry.

Thus in the winter stands the lonely tree,
Nor knows what birds have vanished one by one,
Yet knows its boughs more silent than before:
I cannot say what loves have come and gone,
I only know that summer sang in me
A little while, that in me sings no more.

Edna St. Vincent Millay

2. Transcribe the following poem into IPA, scored for voice and piano. A translation has been provided.

Immer leiser wird mein Schlummer, nur wie Schleier liegt mein Kummer zitternd über mir.

Oft im Traume hör ich dich
rufen drauß vor meiner Tür, niemand wacht und öffnet dir,
ich erwach und weine bitterlich.

Ja, ich werde sterben müssen,

eine Andre wirst du küssen,

wenn ich bleich und kalt.

Eh die Maienlüfte wehn,

eh die Drossel singt im Wald:

Willst du mich noch einmal sehn,

komm, o komme bald!

Hermann von Lingg

Ever peaceful grows my slumber, just like a veil lies my distress trembling upon me.

Often in a dream I hear you calling outside my door;
No one awakens and opens it for you,
I wake up and weep bitterly.

Yes, I will have to die;
another woman you will kiss,
when I am pale and cold.

Before the May breezes blow,
before the thrush sings in the forest:
If you wish to see me once more,
come, o come soon!

1. Transcribe the following poem into IPA. It is set for voice and chamber orchestra and the poet is British.

When our two souls stand up erect and strong,

Face to face, silent, drawing nigh and nigher,

Until the lengthening wings break into fire

At either curvèd point,—what bitter wrong

Can the earth do to us, that we should not long

Be here contented? Think. In mounting higher,

The angels would press on us and aspire

To drop some golden orb of perfect song

Into our deep, dear silence. Let us stay

Rather on earth, Belovèd,—where the unfit

Contrarious moods of men recoil away

And isolate pure spirits, and permit

A place to stand and love in for a day,

With darkness and the death-hour rounding it.

Elizabeth Barrett Browning

2. Transcribe the following poem into IPA, scored for voice and piano. A translation has been provided.

Freuden sonder Zahl

Blühn im Himmelssaal

Engeln und Verklärten,

Wie die Väter lehrten.

O da möcht ich sein,

Und mich ewig freun!

Jedem lächelt traut

Eine Himmelsbraut;

Harf und Psalter klinget,

Und man tanzt und singet.

O da möcht' ich sein,

Und mich ewig freun!

Lieber bleib' ich hier,

Lächelt Laura mir

Einen Blick, der saget,

Daß ich ausgeklaget.

Selig dann mit ihr,

Bleib' ich ewig hier!

Ludwig H.C. Hölty

Joys without number bloom in heaven's hall
of angels and transfigured beings,
just as our fathers taught us.
O, there I would like to be
and forever rejoice!

Upon everyone smiles dearly
a heavenly bride;
harp and psalter resound,
and everyone dances and sings.
O, there I would like to be
and forever rejoice!

But I'd rather remain here
if Laura would smile at me
with one glance that said that I should end my lamenting.
Blissfully then with her,
I would stay forever here!

PART III: IPA Transcription

1. Transcribe the following poem into IPA. It is set for voice and orchestra and the poet is American.

Once more into my arid days like dew,

Like wind from an oasis, or the sound

Of cold sweet water bubbling underground,

A treacherous messenger, the thought of you

Comes to destroy me; once more I renew

Firm faith in your abundance, whom I found

Long since to be but just one other mound

Of sand, whereon no green thing ever grew.

And once again, and wiser in no wise,

I chase your colored phantom on the air,

And sob and curse and fall and weep and rise

And stumble pitifully on to where,

Miserable and lost, with stinging eyes,

Once more I clasp,--and there is nothing there.

Edna St. Vincent Millay

2. Transcribe the following poem into IPA, scored for voice and piano. A translation has been provided.

Der Herbstwind schüttelt die Linde,

Wie geht die Welt so geschwinde!

Halte dein Kindlein warm.

Der Sommer ist hingefahren,

Da wir zusammen waren-

Ach, die sich lieben, wie arm!

Wie arm, die sich lieben und scheiden!

Das haben erfahren wir beiden,

Mir graut vor dem stillen Haus.

Dein Tüchlein noch lässt du wehen,

Ich kann's vor Tränen kaum sehen,

Schau still in die Gasse hinaus.

Die Gassen schauen noch nächtig,

Es rasselt der Wagen bedächtig -

Nun plötzlich rascher der Trott

Durchs Tor in die Stille der Felder,

Da grüßen so mutig die Wälder,

Lieb Töchterlein, fahre mit Gott!

J. v. Eichendorff

The autumn wind shakes the linden-tree;
how quickly the world moves on!
Hold your dear child warm.
The summer has passed
when we were together -
alas, how poor they are who love each other!

How poor they are who love each other and part!
This we have both experienced;
I shudder at the silent house.
You still wave your handkerchief,
I can hardly see it for tears,
and silently gaze out into the alley.

The streets still look nocturnal, the coach rattles cautiously -
then suddenly quicker the pace
through the gate to the quiet of the fields, the woods greet so gamely - daughter dear, travel with god!
