This is a new option for the 3rd nine weeks.

MEDIA:

1. One sheet of printer paper, any color. You may use only one side of the sheet.
2. Colored pens/pencils/markers.
3. Background colors (paper) if desired.
4. Other stuff you are creative enough to use.

CONTENTS:

1. Write the title (properly punctuated) and author anywhere on the sheet. If you're working on only one chapter or section, indicate that section also.
2. In the center of the page, draw or attach something visual that captures the central meaning for what you've read.
3. Write two separate words that express the central feeling of this reading.
4. Write two quotes from the reading that are significant to the work as a whole.
5. Write a three-sentence personal connection to something in the reading.
6. Include your name (first and last) somewhere on the project.

ARRANGEMENT:

1. Use color. Backgrounds, words, and pictures should all be colored.
2. Use lines and angles to make the work creative.
3. Use a variety of sizes of print, etc.
4. Use all the space.
