

INSTRUCTIONS:

1. Do the Subject-Verb identification procedure on each sentence.
2. Underline the COMPLETE VERB(S) in each sentence with TWO lines.
3. Underline the head word of the SUBJECT(S) in each sentence with ONE line.
4. In the blank to the left of the sentence, write the correct sentence formula.

EXAMPLE:

SV The big bear was standing on top of the picnic table.

Formulas

_____ 1. The old man walked slowly down the street.

_____ 2. The boys and girls were running around.

_____ 3. A mean dog chased and bit the girl.

_____ 4. The little girl ran quickly home to cry.

_____ 5. The mother and father came out of the house and comforted the girl.

_____ 6. The father called the dogcatcher and chased the dog.

_____ 7. He and another man finally caught the dog.

_____ 8. There are dry leaves and branches on the ground.

_____ 9. Chicago is located on Lake Michigan and has one of the busiest airports.

_____ 10. Bravery and courage are shown by heroes and often are found in a moment of crisis.

SIMPLE SENTENCE LESSON 1B

INSTRUCTIONS:

1. Do the Subject-Verb identification procedure on each sentence.
2. Underline the COMPLETE VERB(S) in each sentence with TWO lines.
3. Underline the head word of the SUBJECT(S) in each sentence with ONE line.
4. In the blank to the left of the sentence, write the correct sentence formula.

EXAMPLE:

SV The big bear was standing on top of the picnic table.

Formulas

- _____ 1. The girls went to school early and left late.
- _____ 2. The happy man and woman were married last Friday.
- _____ 3. The dishonesty of the young man disgusted the members of the jury.
- _____ 4. Jeff and Rick threw the ball and caught it.
- _____ 5. Kathy and Bill went to the movie and ate popcorn.
- _____ 6. The horse jumped and kicked Scott.
- _____ 7. London has become famous for its thick fogs and often has rainy weather.
- _____ 8. The angry man and woman yelled at the young child.
- _____ 9. National parks are scattered through the states and attract thousands of visitors each year.
- _____ 10. There go Scott and James.