It is important to note that care needs to be taken when sending correspondence to a specific person. For example, Dr may come after rank, as appropriate.

In Islam, Sheikh may also be used as term of respect to address older men or a highly trained scholar. Hajji before a person's name signifies that they have completed the Hajj pilgrimage. For Buddhist, the term His Holiness may also be used for senior monks.

Multicultural Affairs Queensland, Department of Local Government, Racing and Multicultural Affairs, can provide advice depending on the individual nature of the request. Multicultural Affairs Queensland are contactable at www.dlgrma.qld.gov.au/multicultural-affairs/multicultural-affairs.html.
