What does POSSESSIVE mean?	Possession is when you own something. Example: This is my binder. This is my desk. This is my book.
Tricks with showing possession: SINGULAR POSSESSIVES What if something is singular and already ends with an "s" or a "z"?	To form the possessive of a singular noun add an apostrophe and an "s". Example: That is the bug's bottle. That is the teacher's desk. That is Jimmy's book. If something is singular (one thing) and ends with an "s" or a "z" you show ownership by adding an apostrophe at the end. Example: Carlos' mother is ill. Texas' land is rich with oil. Mrs. Roberts' classroom is colorful. You may also write it this way: Carlos's mother is ill. Texas's land is rich with oil. Mrs. Roberts's classroom is colorful.
How do I form PLURAL POSSESSIVES?	The possessive form of plural nouns ending in "s" is usually made by adding just an apostrophe. Example: This is the teachers' lounge. This is the students' homework today. If the plural form does not end in "s" you must add an apostrophe and an "s". Example: children That is the children's playroom.

How do I show shared possession?	When possession is shared by more than one noun, add an apostrophe and “s” to the last noun in the series. Uncle Reggie, Aunt Rosie, and my mom’s garden is beautiful. (all three own the garden) Uncle Reggie’s, Aunt Rosies’s, and my mom’s gardens are each beautiful. (each person owns a garden)
How do I form possessives with compound nouns?	Place the possessive ending after the last word. Her sister-in-law’s hip-hop music is interesting. (singular) Her sisters-in-law’s tastes in music is weird. (plural)
How do I form possessives with indefinite pronouns?	Add an apostrophe and an “s”. No one’s anyone’s somebody’s If it ends with else add the apostrophe and an “s” to else. Somebody else’s anyone else’s
How about expressing time?	(day, month, or hour) Today’s Spanish class. I lost an hour’s pay today. I bought a couple of dollars’ worth of grapes.
