

MLA Annotated Bibliography

An annotated bibliography is a list of source citations. Each source citation is followed by a short paragraph that describes the source. An annotated bibliography is meant to show each citation's relevance to your paper as well as the quality of the cited source.

Citation is done in standard format complete with hanging indent.

Paragraph summarizes source

Daly 8

Annotated Bibliography

Washington, George and Nathaniel Greene. Military Strategies: On a Limited Budget Boston: Colonial Press, 1799. Print.

Geared for both a broad audience and professional military historians this book provides an insight into the financial crises involved in the war. The authors show the importance and reliance on foreign currency and support in the prosecuting of the war. The authors share their first-hand experience of deprivation and include a list of books that they used in planning military strategy.

By common consensus the authors were the best American generals and so their book is a valuable resource in understanding the relationship between economics and strategy. Chapter Two of the book is particularly useful since it contains Washington's and Greene's plans for the Battle of Manhattan.

Include header

Everything is double spaced

Paragraph justifies source for the paper

Reminders:

- Works are listed in alphabetical order
- Your instructor may have additional guidelines or requirements

Source: "Annotated Bib Example." TAHVT.org. TAHVT.org, 10Jul2008. Web. 23 Aug 2011.
<<http://www.tahvt.org/AnnotatedBibExample.pdf>>.