MLA Handbook for Writers of Research Papers, 7th Edition: (Available for reference in the Writing Center and Logue Library)

Modern Language Association of America. MLA Handbook for Writers of Research Papers. 7th ed. New York: Modern Language Association of America, 2009. Print.

*IMPORTANT NOTE: The MLA Handbook was updated in 2009, and the following resources include these changes.

The OWL at Purdue University, MLA 2009 Formatting and Style Guide:

- Path from Google: Type in "Purdue OWL." → Click the first link. → Once on the Purdue OWL homepage, click "MLA 2009 Formatting and Style Guide" (upper right-hand side). The Table of Contents is on the left side. Click on any of the options listed.
- Direct link: <http://owl.english.purdue.edu/owl/resource/747/01/>
- The web site includes an explanation of formatting MLA style (in-text citations and Works Cited page), model entries written for a student audience, a sample paper, a PowerPoint Presentation, and additional MLA resources.

Bedford/St. Martin's, Documenting Sources in MLA Style, 2009 Update:

- Path: <http://www.bedfordstmartins.com/mla> → Click either PDF option at the bottom of the page for a more comprehensive overview of MLA style: "Documenting Sources in MLA Style 2009 Updates." These booklets contain examples of MLA in-text citations and Works Cited entries, general rules for MLA paper format, and a sample paper. A link to the Diana Hacker booklet is also available from the CHC Logue Library's web site (see instructions below for accessing the web site).
- On the same webpage, click "What's New with MLA Style?" to view a flyer that briefly explains 2009 changes to MLA style.

Chestnut Hill College Logue Library:

- Path to MLA Resources from the homepage www.chc.edu/library → Click "Write and Cite" (left-hand side). → Click the "MLA Style" tab. → Follow the links to MLA-related resources, including "Frequently Asked Questions about MLA Style" (from the MLA Handbook homepage) and "Documenting Sources in MLA Style: 2009 Updates."
