Indirect Object Pronouns

- Indirect objects are nouns that tell to whom/what or for whom/what something is done.

example: She is selling the car to her friend.

- Indirect object pronouns replace or accompany indirect objects.

Indirect Object Pronouns:

- me = to/for me

te = to/for you (familiar)

le = to/for him, to/for her, to/for you (formal)

nos = to/for us

os = to/for you (plural familiar) * only used in Spain

les = to/for them, to/for you (plural)

- Indirect object pronouns are placed directly before the verb.

example:

She is buying the shoes for me. = Ella me compra los zapatos.

- The word no is placed before the indirect object pronoun.

example: I am not giving the money to you. = Yo no te doy el dinero.

- When le and les are used, they are often clarified at the end of the sentence by putting a + pronoun/noun/name.

examples:

I'm buying the tie for my brother. = Yo le compro la corbata a mi hermano.

My mother buys clothes for them. = Mi madre les compra ropa a ellos.
