My beloved Principality,

Fifty years ago, I was raised between the mountains and the Mediterranean Sea, in this sparkling city for the locals always at the cutting edge of trends while cherishing its legacy, in your unique destination for any traveler in search of glamour.

During half of a century, I have dedicated myself to unlock your destination for the travelers discovering the excitement of the principality, and invite guests to savor the good life, linger during the golden hour, enjoy the never-ending summer.

Much more than a hotel, I am a place where locals and travelers can connect with the soul of Monaco like nowhere else, creating long-lasting memories along the way, sometimes going back to their childhood. I have always been committed to being a fascinating reflection of your rich culture, cosmopolitan cuisine, art scene, and above all a celebration of your "Monaco way of life".

I am celebrating this year my 50th birthday in this legendary place, and wish to take this opportunity to express my gratitude for your unwavering support over the decades, and above all the love I have for you.

As I blow out my 50 candles, I wish that the years to come will also be filled with unforgettable moments and will continue to nurture the unique bond between our guests, you, and me, Le Méridien Beach Plaza.
