

Odyssey Bio-Poems

After writing our own bio-poems, we are now going to write a bio-poem for a character in the Odyssey or for one of the Greek Gods. You will need to use what you have learned from reading The Odyssey, and you will also need to conduct some research, to find out more information about your character. You will need to cite any of the outside sources you use to complete your poem (these sources will be cited in a Noodle Tools Works Cited page).
