

Complete Sentence or Fragment: Independent Practice

The subject is who or what the sentence is about. The verb is the action in the sentence.

Part 1 Directions: Circle the subject and underline the verb in each example. Then determine if it is a complete sentence or a fragment.

- |   |                               |
|---|-------------------------------|
| 1. Andy hit the hockey puck into the net.   | complete sentence OR fragment |
| 2. Sam and Jillian went to class.           | complete sentence OR fragment |
| 3. The movie.                               | complete sentence OR fragment |
| 4. The tiger lives in the jungle.           | complete sentence OR fragment |
| 5. All day.                                 | complete sentence OR fragment |
| 6. My family thanked Ryan for dinner.       | complete sentence OR fragment |
| 7. I dream about roller coasters.           | complete sentence OR fragment |
| 8. Running on the track.                    | complete sentence OR fragment |
| 9. Danny played Fortnite until his bedtime. | complete sentence OR fragment |
| 10. The police protect the community.       | complete sentence OR fragment |

Part 2 Directions: Rewrite the following fragments as complete sentences.

Hint: This about what these fragments are missing!
If it's missing a subject, add one! If it's missing a verb, add one!

11. A typical school day.

---

12. To call a friend.

---