

The students in 4th Grade have been learning some of the different parts of speech: nouns, verbs, adverbs, adjectives, and conjunctions. We would like to share our Cinquain poetry. Cinquain is a short poem that follows a set pattern. Our Cinquain poems have five lines. The first line is a noun, second line is two adjectives, third line is three verbs, fourth line is a phrase, and the 5th line is another word for the noun. We hope you enjoy our poems!

Mrs. Anderson & Mrs. Blum

I am a bat.
Racing to creepy homes as fast as I could.
I scare the naughty children.
Greeting them with a smile.
I snooze during the day and make kids scream at night.
I am bat.

Kayla Bobeldyke

Pumpkins
Orange, scary
Carving, scrapping, spooking
They make great Jack o'lanterns
Veggies

Maisy Schlender

Halloween
Spooky, kooky
Frightening, threatening, panicking
With all the souls in the air
Spooks

Layton Planer

Halloween
Scary, Frightening
Tricking, Scaring, Running
Going around the neighborhood
Fun

Nevaeh Morris

Rainbow
Colorful, beautiful
Shimmering, shining, eye-catching
Bunch of colorful lines in the sky
Promise

Destiny King

Stars
Beautiful, magical
Dazzling shining sparkling
Talking to me
Nova

Noah Hale

Apples
Crunchy, juicy
Eating, cutting, baking
My favorite snack
Fruit

Zachary Cordner

Leaves
Fragile, crunchy
Falling, dropping, crumbling
Look at all the different colors
Fall

Gadiel Ferrer

Pumpkin
Orange, hard
Growing, living, carving
For Halloween
Decorations

Ariana Hutson

Friends
Hilarious, caring
Playing, exploring, communicating
Having fun together
Friendship

Madison Bailey

Bike
New, green
Peddling, riding, coasting
Up and down the hills
Wheels

Hunter Henricksen

Books
Interesting, entertaining
Predicting, reading, inferring
Filling me with knowledge
Education

Tru Alder

Math
Difficult, confusing
Adding, subtracting, multiplying
Homework every day
Arithmetic

Lily Cohn

Halloween
Spooky, scary
Walking, hiding, eating
"Trick or Treat"
Fun

Isabel Romero

Wings
Hot, spicy
Burning, firing, screaming
So hot, I cried
Appetizer

Dylan Busch

Stars
Beautiful, shiny
Sparkling, gleaming, glittering
In the night sky
Bright

Thor Martin

Halloween
Scary, spooky
Waling, trick or treating, eating
My favorite time of the year
Night

Ethan Neemeyer

Pumpkins
Orange, round
Cutting, eating, painting
Carving a pumpkin
Gourd

Andrew Neuroth

Rain
Clear, Cool
Condensing, falling, refreshing
Dancing in the air
Precipitation

Nicole Hasebroock

Apples
Healthy, juicy
Munching, crunching, appetizing
In my tummy
Fruit

Lauryn Christensen

Sun
Fiery, spectacular
Suffocating, flaming, burning
Making me happy
Star

DeAndre Redwing

Halloween
Scary, spooky
Frightening, horrifying, daring
Getting candy all night
Spooks

Briann Held

Apples
Shiny, crunchy
Falling, eating, baking
In my backyard
Yummy

Kolten McDonald