

Phrases

- An Adjective Phrase is a phrase that does the work of an Adjective.

Examples: He is a wealthy man.

He is a man of wealth.

The chief lived in a stone house.

The chief lived in a house built of stone.

He is an honourable man.

He is a man of honour.

Phrases

- Adjective Phrase cannot be substituted by an Adjective in some cases as below

The wages of Sin is death.

The love of praise reigns in every heart.

He never felt the witchery of the soft blue sky.

Phrases

- Adjective Phrase
- Examples ( Adjectives to Adjective Phrases):
  - The rose is a very beautiful flower.
  - The rose is a flower of great beauty.
  - A courageous man does not fear danger.
  - A man of courage does not fear danger.
  - Heroic deeds deserve our admiration.
  - Deeds of heroism deserve our admiration.

Phrases

- Adjective Phrase

- Examples ( Adjective Phrases to Adjectives ) :

Some of the buildings in New York are of great height.

Some of the buildings in New York are very high.

Nelson was a boy without fear.

Nelson was a fearless boy.

Nobody likes a person with a bad temper.

Nobody likes an ill-tempered person.