

As right as rain

Idiom in Sentence

Examples

- After a good night's sleep, I felt as right as rain and ready to tackle the day.
- Once the software update was complete, my computer was running as right as rain.
- After some minor adjustments, the old bicycle was as right as rain and ready for a long ride.
- Following the emergency landing, the pilot ensured everyone that the plane was as right as rain.
- When she returned from her vacation, she looked as right as rain and fully rejuvenated.
- After the long, grueling hike, a hearty meal made me feel as right as rain.
- Once the mechanic replaced the battery, my car was as right as rain.
- After the misunderstanding was cleared up, their friendship was as right as rain.
- The project was a mess last week, but with some extra effort, now it's as right as rain.
- After the veterinarian's treatment, my dog was as right as rain and wagging his tail again.
- The garden was wilting last week, but after some rain, it's as right as rain.

- He was really stressed about the presentation, but once it was over, he felt as right as rain.
- After a week of being sick, she took her medicine and felt as right as rain.
- Following the successful merger, the company's stock prices are as right as rain.
- Once we sorted out the logistics, the event planning was as right as rain.
- After some marital counseling, their relationship was as right as rain.
- The chef adjusted the recipe, and now the soup tastes as right as rain.
- After rebooting the system, all the servers were working as right as rain.
- She was nervous about the exam, but after reviewing one last time, she felt as right as rain.
- After a day of rest and hydration, the athlete was as right as rain and ready for the competition.