

Bite the bullet

Idiom in Sentence

Examples

- I had to bite the bullet and accept the higher insurance premiums after my car accident.
- Sarah bit the bullet and finally went to the dentist to get her wisdom teeth removed.
- "Sometimes you have to bite the bullet and make tough decisions," the CEO said during the layoffs.
- After procrastinating for weeks, John bit the bullet and started his term paper.
- Jane bit the bullet and enrolled in night classes to further her career.
- Knowing he had no other option, Tim bit the bullet and paid the hefty fine.
- The athlete bit the bullet and continued to play despite his minor injury.
- Mary bit the bullet and called her ex-boyfriend to get some closure.
- When the emergency arose, the entire team bit the bullet and worked through the weekend.
- "If you want to resolve this issue, you'll have to bite the bullet and apologize," Emily advised her friend.
- The community bit the bullet and accepted higher taxes to fund the new school.
- Jenny bit the bullet and walked into her boss's office to ask for a raise.

- I was afraid to give the speech, but I bit the bullet and stepped onto the stage.
- She bit the bullet and completed the marathon despite a twisted ankle.
- After years of avoiding it, Mark bit the bullet and scheduled his first colonoscopy.
- The artist bit the bullet and deleted his work, deciding to start afresh.
- "We'll all need to bite the bullet and pitch in if we want this project to succeed," said the project manager.
- Faced with rising operational costs, the small business owner bit the bullet and took out a loan.
- The actor bit the bullet and accepted a role he wasn't excited about just to pay the bills.
- Instead of complaining about the difficult trek, Lisa bit the bullet and enjoyed the incredible views.