
Business Development Manager Cover Letter Example

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to apply for the Business Development Manager position at [Company Name] as advertised on [Job Board/Company Website]. With over seven years of experience in business development roles, I am skilled at identifying opportunities, negotiating deals, and implementing strategic plans.

During my tenure at [Current Company Name], I initiated partnerships with five industry-leading companies, resulting in a 40% increase in annual revenue. I attribute this success to my analytical skills, proactive nature, and ability to work with cross-functional teams to drive the execution of strategic projects.

I am eager to bring my business development expertise to [Company Name]. Thank you for considering my application.

Best regards,
