

Busy as a Bee Idiom in Sentence Examples

- Sarah was busy as a bee, preparing for her upcoming wedding.
- The restaurant staff were busy as bees, ensuring all orders were delivered on time.
- John has been busy as a bee all week, finalizing the details of his new business venture.
- The volunteers at the food drive were busy as bees, sorting and packing groceries.
- During the holiday season, the mall is busy as a bee, filled with last-minute shoppers.
- My grandmother is 80, but she's still busy as a bee, knitting sweaters for everyone in the family.
- As the deadline approached, the design team was busy as bees, perfecting every pixel.
- The artist was busy as a bee in her studio, passionately working on her latest masterpiece.
- Our customer support is busy as a bee, handling inquiries around the clock.
- With exams around the corner, the library was busy as a beehive, full of studious students.
- After launching her YouTube channel, Emma has been busy as a bee, creating and uploading content.

- During the tax season, accountants are as busy as bees, meticulously filing returns.
- The children were busy as bees in the summer camp, participating in various fun activities.
- In preparation for the annual fair, the organizers were busy as bees, coordinating every detail.
- Marcus was busy as a bee, juggling his full-time job and night classes.
- Every morning, the local bakery is busy as a bee, freshly baking goods for the day ahead.
- The tech support team has been busy as bees since the software update was released.
- Our dog has been busy as a bee, digging holes all over the backyard.
- Preparing for her first marathon, Emily has been as busy as a bee, following a rigorous training schedule.
- Since relocating to a new city, Ryan has been busy as a bee, exploring neighborhoods and meeting new people.