
Casual Resignation Letter

Hey [Manager's Name],

I hope this note finds you well. I'm writing to let you know that I've decided to move on and will be leaving my position here. It's been a fantastic journey, filled with tons of laughter, learning, and, yes, even those challenging moments that we conquered together.

My last day will be [your last working day, e.g., "September 30th"]. Until then, you know I'll be here, doing my thing and ensuring a smooth transition.

I'm genuinely grateful for all the fun times, support, and the invaluable experiences I've gathered here. I'll miss the team immensely. Let's definitely grab a coffee or something stronger before I go!

Warmly,

[Your Name]
